this program felt, everyone present would realize, as he did, what a great bunch of kids there were in this town.

Starting their program with a skit - "French Romper Room", Teen Town's Dramatic Group gave a delightful version of the popular children's TV Program, all in French. Teacher Carol MacLeod led her group of pupils - Bonnie Hamilton, Donna Brown, Bill Shivas, Barbara McMillan, Dave Mercier, Bonnie Gunter, Wayne Pearen and Shirley Desrosiers, through action songs, stories, lunch time and interviews. They were assisted by Brian Hubelit as Mr. Music and David Roberts as Uncle Lawrence and the entire program was covered by Ken Woods on the TBHS TV Camera. Wayne Pearen provided the commercial with Bonnie Gunter demonstrating the 'before' and 'after' of Poor Bonnie due to cream rinses.

The first portion of the Teen Queen Contest was based on talent. Introduced by Jane Heenan the girls were Darlene Larson in a spirited tap routine, Linda Lawrence to sing the slow and lovely "Put Your Head On My Shoulder", Bonnie Long in a sparking demonstration of Baton Twirling and Stephanie Synishin in the ever-popular Charleston.

An interlude was provided by the introduction of the Town's newest orchestra, the Ramrods. These five Teenagers, Bob Legualt, Bill Garvin, Bruce Young (Cont'd on Page 7)
