

TEEN QUEEN (Continued from Page 6)

Dave Mercier and Lorne Turner were remarkably well polished in their selections "The Ramrods" "Night Train" and two versions old and new of "Sentimental Journey".

The Teen Queen contestants returned to the stage, modelling formal gowns and giving their autobiographies. An impromptu Jive Contest was won by Bonnie Gunter and Clifford Woods with judging by three Highschool Teachers, Miss E. Buckley, Mr. M. Steen and Mr. K. Pelew.

The highlight of the evening, was the Crowning of the Teen Queen for 1963. Mrs. Ross Mitchell announced the Judges' decision as Bonnie Long, and placed the crown upon her head. The new Queen received a gift and bouquet of red roses and the other contestants receiving a corsage and gift. Judges were Mr. and Mrs. R. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. T. Pollard and Mrs. B. Marquis. Terrace Bay's Teen Queen will travel to the Nipigon - Red Rock Rally to compete in the Northwestern Ontario Teen Queen Contest.

Social dancing continued until 1:00 A.M. with music provided by the Ramrods.

ASSOCIATION TO GUIDES AND BROWNIES MEET

Mrs. J. Lang was hostess Monday evening, to the regular meeting of the Local Association to Guides and Brownies. Mrs. S. Mikus, District Commissioner, chaired the meeting and welcomed new members of the executive.

Minutes of the Annual report were read by Secretary Mrs. D. Evans-Smith and Mrs. A. Farrow gave the financial statement. Mrs. Mikus recommended ordering twenty-four yearly subscriptions to the Guide Magazine.

Convenors then presented their reports. Mrs. Lang requested testing supplies and Mrs. Mikus suggested a permanent staff of testers be organized and the need for four new Guiders, two blue and two brown. Mrs. J. Knight reported Cookies on order for both Schreiber and Terrace Bay. Mrs. A. Zwir reported on notices published re Thinking Day. Mrs. J. Brooks, reported a possible need for Brownie ties. It was suggested the Afternoon Group of the Community Church Auxiliary be asked to help in this project.

Mrs. J. Caccamo requested information concerning the Brownie Mother and Daughter Banquet.

Mrs. L. Phillips announced two Brownies passed their Golden Hand and three Guides were taken on a tour of the Hydro Plant.

Mrs. Mikus announced Mrs. R. Downey would be willing to supervise a local camp this summer. There would then be a need for one Nurse, one Lifeguard, and one Housewife for Guide Camp.

Mrs. G. Dodge, reported that the Easter Candy and Bake Sale will be held Easter Saturday. She suggested also that a Bake Sale be held in July to raise additional funds.

It was moved that a donation be made to defray expenses of Pat Downey to Doe Lake Guide Camp. Mrs. Dodge offered her home for the next meeting of the Association.

Mrs. T. Brown, Holly and Carol visited Mr. and Mrs. Basil Collings in Chapleau last weekend.

Challenge Day Interest High

The draw sheet for Challenge Day (March 9th) is rapidly filling up. The big challenge of the day will see four Admin. Office teams teeing-off against an equal number of doomed Engineering Office types. Other scheduled challenges include T. Olsen vs. Hospital staff, Welders vs. Pipefitters, Liquor Store vs Bank, Shift No. 1 vs. Waghorn's Pharmacy, Boiler House vs. Warehouse and High School teachers vs. Elementary School teachers.

Everyone over 21 years of age is invited to come out and watch the experts perform in this curling extravaganza. Refreshments will be available from 12 noon till midnight and all participants and their partners, as well as Club members, are invited to the social in the evening.

If you haven't lined up a challenge yet, why not do it now. Just book your ice on the draw sheet at the rink. There are no prizes and no entry fees.

Game of the Week

Crockford and Knight square off tonight (Wednesday) for what amounts to a play-off for runner-up to the Club Champion (L. Duquette). If Knight wins he'll be runner-up, if Crockford wins, Knight is out of the running and Olsen will have a mathematical chance of catching Crockford. The game is at 8:45 and should be a good one.
