

SCHREIBER HERE AND THERE

Mrs. L. Walker and Mrs. F. MacDonald of Chapple's staff are in Fort William on a business trip.

Mrs. G. Etches is visiting her mother in Montreal and will stay with other relatives in North Bay before returning home.

Miss Bonnie Gordon was home from Lakehead school for the weekend. Bruce Gordon was also home from University in Winnipeg.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Laine were in Ely, Minn. over the weekend to attend a cousin's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith are spending the rest of the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Stewart had Miss Peggy Smith of Nipigon Hospital Staff with them for the weekend.

Mrs. J. Hepburn of Fort William visited Mrs. Hugh Stewart last week.

Mrs. Mark Doig of Trenton is the guest of Mrs. N. McCuaig.

Schreiber High School held its first winter carnival last week, with an entertaining program with an original entry of a 'human' dog sled race. Other diverting events were a log sawing competition, snowshoe race, walkathon, broomball game, girls and boys hockey matches, with cheer leaders of opposite sexes in each of the latter. The Wise Old Owl, the school symbol in green and gold ice, on an ice pedestal in front of the school, was particularly well executed and it and the ice palace in the rear drew many spectators.

The U.C.W. will hold their regular meeting on March 6th at 8 P.M. in the Church Hall. Members are asked to bring novelties or other articles for the Bazaar Table. The program will include a film on Cancer Research.

The prize committee chairman for the ladies bonspiel was Miss Lorraine Nesbitt and the draw prize was won by John Spikula.

Mrs. B. White is a patient in Terrace Bay Hospital and Bill Fraser has returned there for further treatment.

Mrs. Ted Wilson has returned home from hospital in Port Arthur.

A. Meron of Port Arthur was a business visitor in town this week.

Miss Jane Skinner travelled by air to Victoria, B.C. to visit her brother, Scott, and will be a house guest of his fiancée and her parents. Jane will be a Bridal attendant at their wedding on March 8, 1963.

Among the students from Lakehead Teachers' College here last week are, in the Public School, Miss L. Forbes and E. Corbett, Fort William, staying with Mrs. E. O'Connor, Miss L. McKay, Marathon and Miss B. Lenton of Fort William with Mrs. C. Wright, Miss P. Wright, Port Arthur with Mrs. M. Smilsky, Miss S. Kragero with her parents: in Holy Angels Separate School, Miss M. Thompson, Port Arthur, with Mrs. A. Lalonde, G. Mundschutz, Atikokan and R. O'Connor, Sault Ste. Marie, with Mrs. J. Campbell.

His daughters and son arranged a family dinner party, with other relatives present, to mark Dominic Diano's 70th birthday. The immediate family included Miss S. Diano, Mr. and Mrs. F. Veneziano with Mary, Angelina, Adriana and Mario, Mr. & Mrs. F. Speziale, Rosemary, Joey and Sylvia, Mr. & Mrs. J. Speziale with Roseanne, Donnie and Lawrence, Mr. & Mrs. G. Trichilo and Franco and Mr. & Mrs. C. Diano. Other relatives and friends present included Mrs. D. Costa and Albert Costa, Mr. & Mrs. G. Speziale, Mr. & Mrs. C.

Speziale, Miss T. Speziale, Mr. & Mrs. D. Commisso, Miss M. Commisso, Joe and Jimmy Commisso. The evening was spent with music and reminiscing.

The first Schreiber cub packs held their Church parade on Sunday Feb. 17th with some going to Holy Angels' Roman Catholic Church with Miss G. LeBlanc and some to St. Andrew's United Church with Mrs. L. Christie.

L.R. McCuaig is a patient in Terrace Bay Hospital.

Mrs. J. Corbett is in Terrace Bay hospital this week.

Henry Miller was home from the San. for the weekend and will shortly be discharged.

Stewart Reid, after almost a year there for treatment, was welcomed home by his family and friends last week.

The Busy Bees of St. John's Anglican Church will hold a cabbage roll, homemade bread and bun sale on March 9th in the Church hall. Orders will be taken in advance for cabbage rolls only until 5 p.m. March 6th.

Relatives and friends gathered in Mr. & Mrs. J.P. Gagnon's home on Saturday evening to congratulate the veteran engineer who made his last run before retiring on pension that morning on the Canadian.

The toast to Mr. Gagnon was proposed by his brother J.C. Gagnon.

Mrs. Gagnon was assisted in serving lunch by Mrs. Harvey McCanna.

Mrs. Hubert Weaver held open house on Feb. 25th in honor of her husband whose retirement on pension took place on his arrival on the Canadian at midnight, Feb. 24th. Mr. Weaver's service with the Company began June 1912.

The floral centrepiece for the tea table was a gift from granddaughters Daryl-Lynn, Wendy and Billie. Mrs. Weaver was assisted by Mrs. Bill Weaver, Miss Queenie Spicer, Mrs. W.T. Wallace, Mrs. Jack Phillips and Mrs. Harold Livingston.

SCHREIBER HOCKEY PLAYER RECEIVES TROPHIES

John Cosgrove, high school student and captain of the Schreiber North Shore hockey team, received two presentations at the last game between Schreiber and Terrace Bay. The Carling trophy for the Rooky of the Year was presented by Dr. J.M. Cornell, Schreiber and the Peter Mazza trophy, for least penalized team of the season, by Ed. Pineault of Terrace Bay, both directors of the North Shore Hockey League.

REBEKAHS HOLD VALENTINE PARTY

Mrs. Jean Plummer, N.G. and Mrs. Orel Wright, V.G. were in charge of the regular Ruby Rebekah meeting on Wednesday night with minutes and correspondence read by Mrs. W. Clemens.

The sick and visiting report was given by Mrs. Wright. The noble grand advised the degree team that practice will be held following the next meeting.

At the close of this meeting a Valentine party was held convened by Mrs. M. Slater when winners at whist were Mrs. F. Whent, first and Mrs. J. Fisher, consolation with a special prize for Mrs. F. Higgins and the door prize going to Mrs. B. Whent.

P.T.A. MEETING HELD

A very good turnout of members attended the Catholic P.T.A. meeting in the School on Feb. 21st. (Continued on Page 9)