

SCHREIBER HERE AND THERELADIES EXHIBITION HOCKEY

Schreiber Ladies vs Schreiber Girls on Sunday, March 10th from 2 - 4 PM. Everybody Welcome! Proceeds are in aid of the Artificial Ice Fund.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Holmes were in North Bay to attend the funeral of the late Alfred Rummery, Mrs. Holmes' brother-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Worrell were called to Coldwater, Ont. by the death of the latter's sister.

Miss A. Madill of the Western Conservatory of Music in London, Ont. was here last week to conduct music exams for both Mrs. Smitheman's studio and Our Lady's Convent School of Music.

Alex Power was elected chairman of the Children's Aid Society at their meeting on Feb. 25th. Mrs. W. Anderson of Terrace Bay was named vice chairman, Mrs. D. McGuire secretary treasurer, and Mrs. R.A. Turner social convener. Miss Muriel Atcheson, Case Worker, gave some highlights of the annual meeting at the Lakehead and mentioned the likelihood of the local office being transferred to Marathon. The next meeting will be held in W.G. Furlonger's home.

H. Harmer, J. Phillips and L. McCuaig attended the Progressive Conservative convention in Port Arthur on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Skinner will fly to Victoria to attend the wedding of their only son, AB Scott Skinner, RCN, to Elizabeth Louise Lawrence of Victoria. The wedding will take place in St. Mark Anglican Church, March 8th. The groom's cousin, Donna Slater of Fort William and his uncle Jim Scott of Winnipeg will also attend the wedding.

Mrs. Inez McKeivitt and F.V. Harness have been appointed by the local association as delegates to the Credit Union convention being held in Toronto.

Reeve W.E. D'Arcy and J.E. Stokes are attending the Ontario Hydro convention in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rummery were called to North Bay on the death of the former's brother, Alfred (Nipper) Rummery, CPR general car foreman.

Mrs. L. Johnson has returned from hospital at the Lakehead.

Ivan Johnson returned home last week from hospital.

Mrs. G. Cataford has been visiting her son Allan Cataford and his family in Otter Rapids, other relations in Englehart and North Bay, and while passing through Cochrane with Mr. and Mrs. Alex McCuaig.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Birch left on Sunday for Canmore, Alta. summoned by the shocking news of the death of their grandson, Timmy Krizan, by drowning. Timmy is the two and a half year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krizan, nee Helen Birch, who has many friends in the Lakehead. All that is known of the tragedy is that the active child somehow escaped a carefully fenced yard and was found in the swollen Bow River which is not too far from his home. The community sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Birch whose devotion to their grandchildren is a byword, and to Helen and her husband.

The Women's World Day of Prayer in which Canadian Women have participated for the past 35 years, was held in St. John's Anglican Church, with the rector's wife, Mrs. R.J.S. Inshaw, Mrs. J.D. Bryson and Mrs. R.A. Crook, wife of St. Andrew's United Church Minister, as leaders.

The Theme, "More Than Conquerors", was written by Mrs. David Chung of Korea.

Others taking part in the service were Mrs. J. Smitheman, organist and Mrs. Alec Gordon soloist; a prayer "For The Church Universal" was given by Mrs. F. Macadam; "For those who give their life at home and abroad in the service of Christ" by Mrs. N. Smith, For the Sick, needy and suffering by Mrs. R. Bailey; Mrs. G. Gordon and Mrs. F. Harness took up the offering.

Mrs. Alex McGregor, Schreiber's oldest citizen, celebrated her 97th birthday quietly on Feb. 26th in the home of her daughter, Mrs. W.G. Furlonger, with her family and old friends calling during the day.

Mrs. McGregor was born in Newbridge, Ont. and came to Schreiber in 1894 with her husband, residing here since.

Mrs. McGregor has been a lifelong Liberal and her wit has often sparked at the expense of her daughters, Inez, Mrs. Lester McCuaig, and Maybelle, Mrs. W.G. Furlonger, one of whom is a conservative and the other a liberal. Her greatest delight is in her grandchildren and great grandchildren of whose company she never tires. It is fantastic to contemplate the changes in every way within Mrs. McGregor's life, in Schreiber alone.

Mrs. Henry Davis, who came under McGregor's wing as a bride, came from Fort William for a birthday visit with her old neighbor.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Whitton received congratulations at their home on Feb. 28th on the 25th anniversary of their marriage. Their bridal attendants, Mr. and Mrs. W. Miller and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. Whitton received with them. Assisting in serving refreshments were Mesdames N. Nesbitt, J. Whitton, G. Krause, C. Duggan, R. Krause, J. Winters, J. Handel, J. Bryson, R. Bailey, H. Duggan and R. Winters. Among the many lovely gifts received were ones from California and Birmingham, England.

ST. JOHN'S AMBULANCE REPORT SUCCESSFUL YEAR

St. John A/N held its regular meeting on Feb. 25th in the town hall with Mrs. J. Rummery presiding.

A two minute silence was observed in memory of the late Mrs. Christina Graham, Divisional Nursing Officer.
