

HE COMES INTO THE LIVING ROOM
HE'S VERY POLITE,
BUT WHAT'S THIS? A CORD
HIDDEN OUT OF SIGHT?
NOW MOTHER, NOW FATHER!

"SEE HERE" SAYS SPARKY
"THIS IS NO JOKE
IF THIS CORD SHOULD GET
FRAYED YOU COULD GO RIGHT
UP IN SMOKE!"

EXCITING HOCKEY GAME FRIDAY

On Friday at 7:00 P.M. another exciting hockey game is in store for us. A group of ex-minor players have challenged a team of ex-house league players to a game that promises to be a lot of fun.

The "has-beens" could possibly show the "might-have-beens" that the old boys still have the edge when it comes to tricky play and caginess. So for some fun and possibly some good hockey it's the Arena on Friday, March 15th at 7:00 P.M.

Said the tooth paste to the tooth brush, in terms of wild delight - I'm going to give you a great big squeeze when we meet on the bridge tonight.

SCHREIBER-TERRACE BAY C.G.I.T. GET TOGETHER

The senior members of the C.G.I.T. were guests last week of the C.G.I.T. in Schreiber, enjoying a very fine evening.

Commencing with Worship led by Marlene Jartus and Judy D'Arcy, they were then shown a film on Tuberculosis with Boyd Drake projectionist and through the courtesy of Mrs. N. McCuaig.

A discussion on the film followed and lunch was served by Linda Handel and her committee.

CATHOLIC GIRLS CLUB TO SELL SHAMROCKS

Thirty-nine members were at the meeting held by the Catholic Girl's Club on Sunday night in Holy Angels School. Marion Prescott presided, Georgette Le Blanc called the Roll and L. Bedard read the minutes and correspondence.

Father Cano opened with Prayer and spoke briefly on the purpose of the Mission. He conveyed the pleasure of the Missioners in the attendance and behaviour of the girls who were present at the Mission.

Current projects were discussed and it was announced that Knitting Classes will begin (mitts) on Monday, March 18th at 7.30 P.M. in the Guild Hall.

CANCEL SOCIETY PLAN CANVASS

The Schreiber Cancer Unit met in the home of Mrs. J.D. Bryson on March 7th to make arrangements for the canvass for funds which will take place on April 17th.

Mrs. R.G. Macadam was named Campaign Chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Gray, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Sly were in Port Arthur for the Christening of their Grandson, Jeffery, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Craig of Port Arthur.

There was a young lady names Harris, whom nothing could ever embarrass Till the bath salts one day, in the tub where she lay, Turned out to be plaster of paris.
