E. Lawson and R. Leifer took 4th spot.

Second Event was won by Ann Latour with her Terrace Bay rink of O. Kross, S. Gusul and V. Galvin. Peggy Wellings and her rink of V. Gresdal, N. Crockford and L. Gavin, also of Terrace Bay came in second. A Fort William rink, skipped by Freda Murphy with B. Whent, Z. Lambert and M. Kelly were third. Minnie McCuaig of Schreiber skipped her rink of J. Stitt, D. Gauthier and M. McCuaig into fourth spot.

Juanita Gellert of Schreiber fought it out for first place in the Third Event, with her rink of C. Powers, E. Niemi and J. McCuaig. Second place was taken by M. Cheshire of Manitowadge with her rink of H. Latimer, K. Montrose and P. Smith. Merle Adams from Red Rock with D. McAuley, M. Button and D. Moore ended up in third position. Another Fort William rink, skipped by E. Flanagan with G. Cairns, N. Lang and E. Patterson were fourth place winners.

A draw was made by Rune Ostling and lucky winner of the clock radio was Kay Thorsteinson.

The Ninth Annual Ladies Bonspiel which chalked up still another success in their long line of good Bonspiels was opened by President Betty Bouchard on Friday morning as she threw the first rock after her welcoming address, on behalf of herself, Bonspiel Chairman Sylvia Duquette, her executive and the Club.

Saturday evening a brief respite from curling curling was enjoyed when the ladies sat down to a banquet in the Moose Hall, catered to by the Women of the Moose. Grace was pronounced by Ida Romanuk and the toast to the Queen by Betty Bouchard. Introduction of the Head table guests and the participating rinks was followed by a few words from Ida Romanuk, incoming President of Ladies Northwestern. She called upon the outlying Clubs to join the Northwestern, a larger membership being for the betterment of the Association.

Several prizes were also awarded at the Banquet, the first going to the Fisher rink from Sault Ste. Marie, who had travelled the farthest. They received an Avon set each. Silver Serving trays went to the Kay Thorsteinson rink of Terrace Bay as the first rink to score the largest end and a draw by Mrs. E. Hodgkiss gave Eleanor Barbini and her Fort William rink a set of curling glasses each.

Highlight of the evening was the appearance of Producer and Director Alycejoy Blom with her troupe in their two presentations. The first was a comic satire on TV's favorites, The Beverley Hillbillies, each member of the troupe giving a tremendous impersonation, and secondly their version of the more delicate Romper Room with its teacher Miss Lush. The actresses were, besides Alycejoy, Audrey Smith, Vivian Hanna, Virginia Galvin, Mary Hale and Ollie Chapman. Two musical commercials filled the intermissions, sung by Louise Gavin and Enid Buckley accompaniment by Ellen Hodgkiss and commercials by Betty Bouchard. The entire troupe returned for their finale in a musical word of welcome to each and every rink.

A word of appreciation goes to Audrey Smith, who spent the weekend as Kitchen Chef, and to Chairman S. Duquette, President B. Bouchard and the executive whose combined efforts made a memorable weekend.
