FISHING STARTS THIS WEEKEND

The Minister of Lands and Forests recently announced a change in the opening date of the brook, rainbow, brown and aurora trout season. The season has been advanced to Saturday, April 27th, instead of the previously announced May 1st.

This will be a welcome change for the ardent brook trout (speckled trout) fishermen of this area who will have an extra weekend of trying their luck.

QUEEN SCOUTS HONOURED

The honor roll of five Terrace Bay Boy Scouts who have earned their Queen Scout Certificate was doubled last weekend when five Scouts travelled to Winnipeg to be among the 160 Scouts to receive, from the Rt. Hon. Errick Willis, the coveted certificates.

Scouts Ron Downey, David Mercier, Brian Hubelit, Derick Wills and Bill Shivas were accompanied to Winnipeg by their A.S.M. Mr. John Shivas and the Commissioner of Pic River District, Mr. Roland Wills.

Prior to the presentation in the Legislative Buildings, a Recognition Luncheon was held in the Marlboro Hotel for the Scouts, Scout Masters and officials.

DISTRICT DIRECTOR TO ADDRESS HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

The spring meeting of the Horticultural Society will be held this Friday evening at 8:00 P.M. in the Large meeting room of the Recreation Centre. The new District Director, Mr. Bob Bell of Port Arthur, will be guest speaker.

Members can pick up their premiums of gladiola bulbs at this meeting, and may make their selection from a wide variety of colors. Coffee will be served and there will be door prizes. Everyone welcome.

A TELEVISION TIP

Bothered with 'snow' on channel 6? One informant states that an effective remedy (discovered by chance) is to have a glass surface adjacent to the TV and watch the program on it instead of the set--thus getting the image but no snow.

We've also heard that sun glasses do the trick - but this might be a little hard on the eyes.
