Rev. and Mrs. T.G. Husser visited last week with their three daughters and their grandchildren in Aylmer, Ont., - Mrs. Wm. Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ingram and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Dreyer. While there they met many old friends from the congregation of St. Paul's United Church. They were also entertained in Wingham at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Copeland and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reavie when they had the opportunity of renewing friendships from this their immediate past congregation.

Rev. and Mrs. Husser enjoyed there trip East but were eager to return to their work and fellowship here. They also report coming back with an even greater appreciation of the beauty and appointments of the Community of Terrace Bay.

MANITOBA THEATRE SCORE SUCCESS

Many saw Manitoba Theatre Centre's rendition of "Moderns Go to School" and "An Evening with the Irish" when it appeared in Terrace Bay.

The performance held in the Highschool Auditorium in the afternoon for students of grades 7, and 8 from the Elementary Schools, and grades 9 to 12 from the Highschool as well as grade 13 from Schreiber, was one in which comedy held prominence. The main purpose of this show was to demonstrate to students how plays studied in the classroom would be performed, and how they may be enjoyed. A scene from George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man" and the ever popular one act comedy "The Marriage Proposal" were performed with a minimum of settings on a portable stage 8' x 8' with costume and property changes done in front of the audience. Accompanying these plays was a reading of the poem "Chicago" by Len Carieau who illustrated the grotesqueness and beauty of a city's personality merely by voice control. The singing of an old English ballad in its original form was found (Cont'd on Page 4)
