

The Schreiber Scribe

April 25, 1963

LOCAL COUPLE WIN TRIP TO NASSAU

Mr. and Mrs. R. Campbell are jubilant over winning the Fort William Car Sinking Draw. The ticket was in the name of baby Tammy and small son Joey, but the weeks vacation for two to Nassau is to be taken by the parents.

HAT SHOW PROVES SELL-OUT

Mrs. C. Sparkes was commentator at the Hat Show sponsored by the Busy Bees of St. John Anglican Church last Friday afternoon and evening.

Displaying the many lovely millinery creations were Sylvia Harness, Shirley Jartus and the Mesdames G. Wood, J.D. Bryson, R.B. Smith, A.W. Slater, R. Turner and J. Corbett. Mrs. C. Bougie and Mrs. Jack Bryson received at both showings.

Serving lunch at the individual tables were Mesdames W. Miller, T. Whitton, Geoff Birch, N. Bottomley, D. May (Convenor) R. Bailey, R. Gray, J. Winters and W. Robertson, Terrace Bay.

The afternoon door prize was won by Mrs. D. Condie and the evening one by Mrs. L. Bryor.

TROPHIES PRESENTED AT CURLING CLUB BANQUET

The curling clubs held a joint banquet to mark the end of the season with President Ed Holmes giving the welcome address and Gino Caccamo as M.C.

Guests at the dinner were Mrs. H.N. Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. J. Clancy, Terrace Bay and Mr. and Mrs. Naldo Brassi of White River.

In addition to the foregoing the following also spoke briefly:- Neil Ross, who paid warm tribute to the women members for their support; Burton Phillips, Al Slater and Mrs. W. Thrower.

Trophies were presented as follows:

Caccamo - Frankie Caccamo, Leon Cote, Katie Frommann, Joe Figliomeni. Costa - Neil and Elsie Ross, Frank Kalhok and Myrna McCuaig. Club - Al Slater, Alf Bull, Bill Randa, Fran Crawley. Thompson - Ray and Elmer Niemi, Pete Doig, Gerry Thrower. Riley - Jim McCuaig, Brian Birch, Bruce Costall, Barry Harper. Borden - Ed Holmes, Reo Nagasaka, Wally Richardson, Wally Zaporzan. Spadoni - Frankie Cataford, Eirene Harness, Fran Nesbitt, Dot Kinney. Terrace Bay News - Dallas Cobey, Joy Riley, Em. Paradis, Betty Randa. Seagram - Juanita Gellert, Elsie Ross, Betty Moorish and Fran Crawley. Afternoon Draw - ladies - Nettie Thrower, Nellie Gray, Katie Frommann and Ann Pelto. Evening Draw - ladies - Pat Beno, Joy Riley, Maureen Phillips, Marlene Doig.

The event ended with a cabaret dance. A special prize donated by J. Halonen of Brooklin, Ont. was won (to the amusement of those present) by his sister Mrs. Ed. Holmes.

CRYSTAL KUSIK CHOSEN TEEN QUEEN

Delegates report having a wonderful time and a very worthwhile conference at Red Rock last week.

Highlight of the Conference was the crowning of Miss Crystal Kusik as Teen Queen. Chosen by a panel of judges from a group of contestants from other points, Crystal's beauty and talent gained for her the coveted crown.

Congratulations Crystal!

Mrs. H. Ross and Mrs. S. Kusik accompanied the Schreiber delegates to Red Rock. The group included Crystal Kusik, Charlotte Ross, Laura Morris, Linda Handel, Roy Davis, Carl Pearson, Peter Christie, Jack Gordon, Jody Davis, David Winters, Lawrence Guillet and Fred McColeman.

SPRING CLEAN - UP IN PROGRESS

While it may be a little early to do much work in our yards, the Town crew have set the pace for Spring Clean-Up by removing litter and sand from streets.

Your reporter was impressed with the speed shown by two men - a truck driver and young man sweeping - who, in a very short time had the sidewalks and shopping centre blocks spic and span.

Residents are urged to follow up the good work and make the areas in which they live attractive and tidy.

REBEKAHS CONSIDER EYE BANK

Mrs. Jean Plummer N.G. and Mrs. Orrel Wright V.G. were in charge of the Ruby Rebe-kah meeting Wednesday night.

Donations were made to the Cancer Society and Navy League and members were asked to consider donations to the eye bank being instituted by the Oddfellows and Rebekahs of Ontario.

Mrs. Margaret Gander, convenor, reported on plans made for the Easter Bonnet Tea.

Mrs. Beth Macadam read minutes and correspondence and Mrs. Wright gave the sick and visiting account.

Degree practice was announced to follow the next regular meeting.

At the close of this meeting penny auction was played and lunch was served.

L. HALONEN FETED ON 80th BIRTHDAY

Lauri Halonen, who came to Schreiber in 1914, was feted on his 80th birthday by his family and friends, at a reception first in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lauri Halonen jr. and later at a family dinner party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Holmes (Lena Halonen).

At the afternoon function a money tree and many individual (Continued on Reverse Side)