

LIFE SAVING EQUIPMENT REGULATIONS:- The following item is taken from the Northern Ontario Tourist Outfitters Association Bulletin.

On April 5th, Secretary-Manager Bob Giles attended a meeting in Ottawa called by the Department of Transport to discuss Section 20A of a Small Vessel Regulations which reads; 20A. Every vessel propelled solely by oars or paddles shall carry; (a) in the case of a vessel not over 18 feet in length, one bailer and one approved small vessel life-jacket or approved life saving cushion for each person on board, (b) in the case of a vessel over 18 feet in length, one bailer and one approved small vessel lifejacket for each person on board.

Applications for exemption from this regulation were made and after some discussion the Department stated it would render a decision on the matter in the near future. We have now received a letter from the Department that they are taking action to rescind Section 20A. This means that persons using canoes, rowboats etc., propelled by oars or paddles will not be required to have life saving equipment.

COMMUNITY CHURCH SCENE OF WEDDING

The marriage of Betty Carol MacFadyen R.N. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. MacFadyen of Terrace Bay to Fred Gaul, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Gaul of Fort William was solemnized Saturday afternoon, June 11th, at 4 o'clock in the Terrace Bay Community Church, Rev. T. Garnet Musser performed the ceremony before an altar adorned with vases of white and yellow gladiolas. Mrs. Stan Hodgkiss presided at the organ.

Escorted on the arm of her Father, the bride was radiant in a full length gown of peau de soie. Lace set with tiny seed pearls outlined the high neckline and the long sleeves ended in lily points. The skirt, falling to a short train, repeated the lace and seed pearl motif, beginning from the sides and caught midway in the front by a large bow of the peau de soie. A bouffant veil was gathered to a crown of pearls set off by crystal, and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

 Attending the bride were Miss Irene Kokanie R.N. of Fort William as Maid of Honor, and Miss Linda MacFadyen, sister of the bride. Gowned alike they chose blue chiffon over taffeta fashioned with scoop necklines and three-quarter sleeves. A cummerbund bow of taffeta outlined the waist above the full skirt. Headdresses of blue wedding ring with veiling, blue shoes and white gloves completed the ensembles and they carried bouquets of blue and white gladiolas.
