

MRS. G. MAITLAND HONOURED BY L.A.

Mrs. George Maitland, a Past President and former Secretary of the Ladies Auxiliary, was honoured Monday evening when both the Afternoon and Evening groups met for their June meeting in the Terrace Bay Community Church. At the adjournment of the business meeting, members joined in a singsong of old favourites, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. C. Simmer.

Introduced by Mistress of Ceremonies, Mrs. F.O. Soughton, a cast composed of original members of the Auxiliary, took the audience back to "That Wonderful Year, 1948" when the Auxiliary was formed. The difficulties of getting to their hall, many with young children, and a train always blocking the crossing, were humourously portrayed, as well as the successes of each and every ambitious venture they undertook - a Spring Tea in a raging March blizzard, Bake Sales when the delicacies would be eaten on the spot by homesick young men from the Camps, and of course, a very popular Fashion Show even if the audience was mostly male. The weighty problem of their financial successes was the last scene when the ladies decided to invest in Government bonds. Actresses were Mesdames R. Ostling, F. Knight, H. Goodfellow, R. Wallwin, R. Harris, G. Dodge, T. Turner, J. Graham, narrator Mrs. Soughton. They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. S. Hodgkiss.

A short poem on "That little half-built Town of ours" written and read by Mrs. H. Marsh preceded the presentation of a leather writing case by Mrs. H. Haughn to the guest of honor. Mrs. Maitland expressed her pleasure on receiving the gift and at the large number of old and familiar faces in the audience and encouraged them to return, as they had that night, to the original Prayer written for them by Rev. Dr. Lavender. She would take with her to Toronto many fond memories of the growing years of Terrace Bay.

Tea was served by the Afternoon Group with Mesdames Ostling and Farrow presiding at the tea service. The Tea table, set with an ecru lace cloth was centred with a low bowl of hyacinths centering a ring of maricissis and flanked by tall white tapers.

Mrs. S. Lundberg chaired the preceding meeting of the Auxiliary following an opening Worship led by Mrs. R. Downey and Mrs. F. Gould accompanying the opening hymn.

Minutes and correspondence were read by Mrs. J. Farrell and Mrs. A. Chisholm gave the financial statement. Convenors reporting were Mrs. Haughn for Property and Mrs. Downey for Program and Lunch.

The Manse committee were instructed to proceed with plans to purchase a new rug and members agreed to complete the bookcases in the study.

The President thanked Mrs. Chisholm for convening the Rummage Sale and she, in turn, thanked her committee. Mrs. A. Pattison recommended thanks be extended to the Boy Scouts for their assistance at the Sale and on her suggestion a donation would be sent to the Scout Committee.

Mrs. Lundberg also thanked Mrs. D. MacFadyen who had responded to an emergency and is caring for the children of a train passenger who became ill and had to be removed at Terrace Bay and taken to hospital.

Mrs. J. Brooks thanked the Ladies Auxiliary for catering to the C.G.I.T. Mother and Daughter Banquet and Mrs. R. Harris announced she had "In Memoriam" cards with the donation being sent to the Canadian Bible Society. The meeting closed with the Benediction.

MUSICAL PRESENTED BY INTERMEDIATE CHOIR

Members of the Terrace Bay Community Church Children's Choir, under the direction of Mrs. A. Chadney and accompanied by Mrs. C. Simmer, entertained their parents and friends at a Spring Tea and Musicale Thursday evening in the Sunday School room.

Assembled in their choir gowns, and introduced by Rev. T. Garnett Husser, the Children's Choir opened with five lovely old favourites - "The Church in the Wildwood", "The Twenty-Third Psalm", "God Who Touchest Earth With Beauty", "How Great Thou Art" and "Evening Prayer".

An interlude on the piano was provided by Joanne and Holly Brown in a novelty duct; Tommy Knight playing "Edelweis Glide"; Pat and Lynn Simmer in "Little Boy Blue March" and "Climb Every Mountain" by Kathy Phillips.

The Choir returned and against their beautiful backdrop of a church in the wild woods (provided by the local Art Club), sang "Do-Re-Mi", "The Surrey with the Fringe on Top", "I Whistle a Happy Tune" and "The Happy Wanderer".

A bouquet of red roses was presented to Mrs. Chadney by Holly Brown with her sister Joanne expressing the appreciation of the choir for her direction, and to Mrs. Simmer by Carol Brown with Molly Harris expressing the choir's thanks.

Tea was served by the senior girls of the Choir as Misses Molly Harris, Pat Simmer, Pat Dodge and Jane West poured. The tea table was gay with a centrepiece of spring blooms and white tapers on the lace cloth, and each individual tea table had a single daffodil in a white holder.

Tea convenor was Mrs. J. Duncan with her committee of Mesdames T. Olsen, L. Phillips, H. Smith, F. Soughton and J. Ferrier. Mesdames F. Gould and J. Knight assisted with the gowns.
