GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Old and new friends thronged the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forbes Macadam on June 24, their Golden Wedding anniversary, to bring good wishes and many beautiful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Macadam, nee Jessie Robinson, were married in Fort William, on June 24, 1913, by the Rev. A. J. Cranston, returning to Schreiber to make their home. Until his retirement, Mr. Macadam was employed as a locomotive engineer.

Among the gifts were solid gold candlesticks from Mr. and Mrs. Radcliffe-Branch (daughter Joan), a golden pig filled with 50 cent pieces from Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Nott (daughter Joyce), lawn furniture from Mr. and Mrs. Gordon F. Macadam, living room lights from Mr. & Mrs. Russell Macadam and a $75.00 money tree from friends, presented by Mrs. Richard Spicer.

For the occasion Mrs. Macadam wore a gold brocade sheath with matching short jacket and corsage of gilded roses.

Tea was poured by Mesdames R. Weaver, R. Spicer, J.D. Bryson and J. Corbett. Mrs.

Radcliffe-Branch, dining room hostess, cut and served the wedding cake, and tea servitors were Misses Sharon Macadam, Pt. Arthur, and Linda Handel Mesdames J. Spillane, R. O'Driscoll, J. Hagen, P. J. LeBlanc,
