MOLINSKI-BUSH NUPTIALS

A wedding of local interest took place in Vancouver on June 15 when Gloria Jean, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. J. G. Molinski and Daniel F. Bush, all of Vancouver, were united in marriage by Father Faley in St. Augustine R.C. Church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in floor length white organza and her half length veil was held by an organza gardenia. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias.

The bride had five attendants; the matron of honor was gowned in dark green faille, the three bridesmaids in aqua faille and the flower girl in a white lace frock. The senior attendants carried cascades of white shastas, yellow centred, and the flower girl a basket of white shastas. The groom was attended by his brother.

For the reception the bride's mother received in a beige flowered sheath with chiffon duster and accessories in tangerine, while the groom's mother chose a yellow linen ensemble with hat and accessories in white.
