PERFECT CRIB HAND

Miss Kit Knauff held a perfect cribbage hand recently when her cards totalled the coveted 29. Others playing in the game were Mr. & Mrs. C. Knauff Sr. and Mrs. Chapman of Fort William.

OUR BOUQUET DEPARTMENT

Our first bouquet this week goes to the Fire Dept. This week we received notice that the insurance premium on our house and contents was due (a 3 year policy carried for many years with the same company). Attention was drawn to the fact that the premium was reduced by almost $25.00. The reduction was made possible because of Terrace Bay's excellent fire record.

Our second experience involves a service. We took our vintage wristwatch into a local jeweller to have the wristband adjusted on both sides. On picking it up a few days later we were agreeably surprised when told there was no charge.

In this age when the high cost of personal services is in danger of pricing us right out of some world markets this little incident is an encouraging sign.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kettle are happy to announce the arrival of their chosen son, Howard.

Marcia Kettle is a patient in St. Joseph's Hospital, Port Arthur.

Visiting Ken and Kay Weppler last week were Ken's mother, Mrs. Ann Weppler from St. Joseph, Michigan and Kay's mother, Mrs. E. Biesenthal and sister, Mrs. R. Arnold from the Lakehead.

Give some people a fighting change and they will do the rest.

PLAYGROUND SPECIAL EVENT DAY

Fairy Tales was the theme Friday afternoon for the Special Event Day held weekly by the Terrace Bay Playground. Imagination had run rampant to bring the myriad of little people out costumed as the beloved story characters of old.
