STEWART-COTE NUPTIALS

Gladioli in pale yellow and orchid adorned Holy Angels' Roman Catholic Church for the wedding on July 6th of Carol Ann (Sally), only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stewart of Schreiber and Paul Raymond Cote, son of Mrs. Dorothy Cote of Geraldton. Father J.M. Cano officiated.

Raymond Guillet was soloist and Miss Anna Fumerton the organist. Ushers were C. Ewart, N. Nesbitt and R. Potvin.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in French taffeta covered with silk chiffon, the pointed basque bodice, with long sleeves and rounded neckline, outlined with lace flower appliques. The flower appliques were also used to edge her mantilla veil of silk illusion and she carried a semi-cascade of yellow gladioli spiced with lily-of-the-valley.

The bride had four attendants--Miss Carol Lalonde and Miss Bee McBride, bridesmaids, Kathy Caldwell and Christopher Stewart, her cousins, as flower girl and ring bearer. The senior attendants wore similar gowns of printed silk in beige and yellow tones with nylon overdress. Their headdresses were yellow mohair circlets with wimple veils and they carried bamboo baskets of white shasta mums with yellow centres. The flower girl's frock was white eyelet embroidery with square neckline, short puff sleeves and a brief full skirt. She carried a basket of white shastas. Leon Cote, brother of the groom, was the Best Man.

Following the ceremony the wedding breakfast was given in the home of the Bride's brother, Brian Stewart, on Park Street.

During the afternoon a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents when Mrs. Stewart received in a navy sheath with hat and accessories in pink and a corsage of sheeheart roses. The groom's mother chose a pale blue ensemble with hat and accessories in white, her corsage of white feathered carnations.

Mrs. J. Corbett was dining room hostess and tea was poured by Mesdames F. Vescio, L.R. McCuaig, Wm. Shaw, Wm. Randa and Geo. McBride with the Misses Marilyn Pearson, Doris McParland, Lorraine Nesbitt, Heather Graham and Susan Caldwell and Mrs. Neil Nesbitt as servitors. The bride's cake and the groom's cake were served by Miss Deborah Stewart, Miss Shelly and Miss Leslie Vescio. Mesd. F. Macadam, C. Sparkes, R. Yrey (Continued)
