FAY WASELOVICH WEDS ERNEST KRAUSE

Pastel hued gladioli adorned St. John's Anglican Church on September 28th, for the wedding of Fay Frances Waselovich of Fort Frances, and Ernest Milton Krause of Schrieber.

Rev. R.J.S. Inshaw officiated, with Mrs. Inshaw as the organist.

During the service Mrs. Clarence Wright sang "O Perfect Love and The Lord's Prayer".

The usher was Neil Verdoni and Jim Duggan cousin of the groom was the best man.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a chiffon gown, taffeta lined. The fitted bodice, had a scoop neckline, outlined with lace and lily point sleeves. The lace edged skirt had a deep pleat edged with lace, in the front and the dropped back-waistline was caught up in a simulated bustle held by a narrow bow, and extended in a circular train. A high round pearl crown held her triple veil of silk illusion and she carried a semi cascade of American Beauty roses.

The bride's attendants were:- Miss Susanne Paske, maid of honor; Miss Betty Lynne Paske and Miss Sandra Finney bridesmaids, Arlene Krause, flower girl and Bobby Waselovich, ring bearer.

The bridesmaids and flower girl all wore lemon yellow frocks, the senior attendants of crystalline with bouffant skirt, scoop necklines and short sleeves edged with scallops. Their head circlets matched their gowns and they carried white shasta mums with yellow centres.

The flower girl's frock was silk organza, scalloped overskirt and carried a nosegay of white mums.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Krause, parents of the groom, when Mrs. Krause received in a geranium pink peau de soie sheath which featured a flaring peplum caught in the back with narrow bow. Trapunto work edged the scooped neckline and her slippers were dyed to match her gown. Her hat and gloves were of paler pink and her corsage of white mums. The bride's mother, who assisted in receiving, chose a sheath with matching jacket in silver satin embossed with green pattern, her hat of white maribou and accessories in pale green. Her corsage was also white mums.

The tea was poured by Mrs. R. Winters and Mrs. J. Corbett, grandmother and aunt of the groom, Mrs. A. McKechnie of Terrace Bay and Mrs. O. Paske of Port Arthur. Mrs. Con Duggan was dining room hostess and servitors were Mesdames D. Beno, J. Winters, G. Riley and Mrs. D. Winters, with Milton Winters in charge of the punch bowl. Mrs. R. Krause and Miss Heather Graham attended the gift room and Shirley Ann Winters circulated the guest book. (Continued)
