Mr. and Mrs. A. Luomala of Port Arthur were weekend guests with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Day.

Mrs. B. Kurylo held a supper party Thursday in celebration of her son Ronald's fifth birthday. An interval of play was followed by the party supper and cake and the children returned home with their treats.

Mr. and Mrs. F. McMillan were guests of her brother Mr. and Mrs. A. Ward and family in Fort William last week.

The Senior Choir of St. Martin's Church honored Mrs. Betty Pineault last Saturday evening at a farewell party held in the home of Mrs. C. Buck.

During the evening a recording of the Easter Mass sung by the choir, taped by Father Gallagher and recorded by H. Lohr was enjoyed by those present.

A delicious luncheon was served by the choir ladies.

MISSING MAN LOCATED

Police have located Thomas Atchie aged 58, a Terrace Bay employee of Food Services Management who disappeared a week ago enroute to visit his family in Port Arthur.

Mr. Atchie phoned his family from Grand Marais Minn., Monday evening and his family are enroute to that town to pick him up.

MANY ATTEND TEACHER'S CONVENTION

District teachers and inspectors were among the 1,600 who gathered in the Lakehead last week to attend their Annual Convention.

Theme of this year's Thunder Bay Teacher's Institute meetings was "Science Teaching in the Elementary Schools". Guest speaker this year was Dr. Donald Ivey, University of Toronto who addressed the group in the morning. Workshops are correlated at the end of afternoon sessions when the guest speaker reappears and a question and answer period follows.

Vendors of school equipment, teaching aids, books etc., display their products.
