ART CLUB HOLDS SESSION IN OIL PAINTING

Last Thursday evening the Terrace Bay Art Club held their first session in Oil Painting for beginners, with a large number attending. The group had three Still Life subjects to choose from, with Mrs. F. Gaulin instructing. During the evening Mrs. D. Laporte displayed Art Supplies and Mr. George Wheeler demonstrated the use of proper lighting to enhance the study of Art. Both were thanked for their valuable assistance.

These studies will be completed next week and the following week a new feature will be dealt with.

"BOBBIE BURNS" NIGHT

Members of Terrace Bay Lodge No. 662, A.F. & A.M. and their invited guests paid tribute to the memory of Scotlands' bard - Bobby Burns - at a Banquet and Dance held in the Moose Hall on Saturday, January 25th.

A Scottish Grace, was pronounced by Alex Sinkins as the assembly took their places at the candlelit tables. Before starting on the turkey dinner, prepared by the Women of the Moose, Pipers W. McMicking and J. Shivas escorted a contingent bearing aloft the traditional Haggis.

A rousing sing-song of Scottish songs led by accompanist F.O. Soughton, - an interlude of bagpipe music and a dance featuring both the traditional and modern concluded a very enjoyable evening.
