

CGIT HOLD INDIAN DINNER

The three groups within the United Church CGIT ended their Mission study with a typical Indian dinner recently. The menu, cooked in advance in one of the leaders' home, included curried chicken, a relish of coconut, onions and tomatoes, with porries (bread), and was eaten with the fingers while seated on the floor. After the meal the servitors provided finger bowls and fingertip towels.

Leaders and girls wore bright saris with Nola Fummerton wearing a particularly lovely one of material sent home by her brother, Sigm. Norman Fummerton from Egypt.

Mrs. Ted Wilson left for Victoria where she will visit her niece Mrs. W. Devlin and attend John Devlin's wedding.

M. E. Stokes was in Port Arthur with his mother, Mrs. Pat Brown, during funeral rites for her husband.

Mrs. Bill Forsythe is being transferred by the Bank of Montreal to the Regina branch.

Reeve F. V. Harness, J. D. Phillips and J. E. Stokes are in Toronto attending the Ontario Hydro convention. A. W. Slater will join Mr. Harness and the two will represent the local branch at a Credit Union convention. Mrs. Harness and Mrs. Slater are accompanying their husbands.

Mrs. Inez McKeivitt is a patient in McKellar Hospital.

In the recent ladies bonspiel it was Lorraine Nesbitt, not Lorraine Weaver, who presented prizes.

Rev. Sister Edwina's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Sheehan of Douglas, Ontario, visited her last week, enroute home from a holiday in the west.

Mrs. Peter Sparkes was in Fort William last week visiting her husband in Westmount Hospital and her sister in McKellar Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Drake were in Fort William recently visiting Mrs. George Drake in Grandview Lodge.

Cathy Wright celebrated her fifth birthday on Feb. 23rd with a party for seven girls and boys.

George and Joy Riley and Mavis and Gerry Godin were at the Lakehead to attend the Kinsmen Founding celebration.

Clare Wright, Chapples manager, is in Fort William on business. Mrs. Lloyd Walker and Mrs. Muriel Singleton were there recently on a buying trip.

Mrs. John St. Jean took her two-year-old daughter to St. Joseph's Hospital in Port Arthur recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Remillard, Danny and Lise, of the Soo, visited Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Laine last week.

While their hostess was inveigled away from her home on Monday evening, a group of Mrs. George (Bun) Scott's friends gathered there to give her a surprise birthday party. The special cake was made by Mrs. Bob Fournier and a pole lamp presented by the following guests:- Mesdames Harry Shack, Harry Martinson, Walter Guillet, Forbes Macadam, Aino Sulonen, Bob Jones, Gary Drake, George Burns, Pat Bolan, Alex Furyk, Mike Smilsky, Bill Kinney, Russell McBride and Steve Petrushack.
