Whether a person has or has not done any work on the course or whether he is from Terrace or Timbuctoo does not in any way reflect on his status as a member.

The name contest ended in a three-way tie. This was resolved by dropping the names in a hat and drawing the winner. The winner was Neil Cornthwaite and the golf course will now be known as "The Aguasabon Golf Course".

The golf committee strongly urges and would appreciate your early membership. There are many who feel there is no advantage in joining the club now. To those we would like to mention that they would be assisting the committee by taking their memberships out now.
