

STUDENTS WIN POSTER AND ESSAY CONTESTS

Elaine Shynkaryk, 3rd prize winner in the Essay Contest, Edward Zwaresh, 1st prize winner and Lorraine Dobush, 2nd prize winner in the Grade II Division Poster Contest for Northwestern Ontario sponsored by the Federation of Anglers & Hunters are shown with Mr. G. Kydd, Pres. of the Terrace Bay Club, who made the awards. Mrs. J. O'Grady is the Grade II teacher, St. Martin's School. Winners were chosen from 250 teacher selected entries and over 300 essays.

Jamie Cumming last week learned that her poster on conservation, entered in the annual contest at the Sportsman's Show in Fort William, had won the grand prize for the best poster submitted from any grade. Her prize will be a flight to Toronto by TCA for herself and a parent, in August. While in Toronto, accommodation will be provided and they will be guests at the Canadian National Exhibition. Spending money will be provided by the Kiwanis Club of Westfort, sponsors of the contest and of the Sportsman's Show.

Pamela Cumming won first prize in the Grade VIII class, winning a Parker pen and pencil set.

In another contest, sponsored by the Northwestern Ontario Conservation Federation, Zone One, Judy Ollen-Bittle has won second prize for an essay on conservation. In this contest also, Jamie Cumming has won a prize for a poster - the 2nd prize in the Grades V and VI class. Both girls are students in Grade VI of the Public School, and were in competition with pupils from elementary schools throughout Northwestern Ontario. Their prizes were books.
