KINDERGARTEN PROGRAM PRESENTED

One of the most enthralling occasions of the year was held on Saturday afternoon in the Guild Hall when Mrs. O.B. Fasan presented her kindergarten in a delightful program.

The large audience of parents and friends vigorously applauded each number, divided between admiration of the teacher's obvious patience in preparing the program and amusement at the wholehearted enthusiasm of each small star in their various roles.

In the first number the boys--Clyde Gordon, Danny Gellert, Kevin Bottomley and Danny Power, proudly wearing Conductor's caps were in charge of the Safety Train and, as each girl passenger named her destination, either waved her grandly to a seat or disdainfully off into the wings.

The next number, The Four Seasons, saw the girls wearing dainty pastel costumes, -- the four little gentlemen singing introductions as they entered. A Beatle number was sung with zest and the program ended with two hymns.

Mrs. Fasan thanked the Rev. Sisters, Father Cano, parents and others who, by their encouragement, had made her work much easier.

Children taking part, in addition to the boys mentioned, were; Karen Lamoureux, Mary Lynn O'Brien, Donna Gellert, Kelly McParland, Tina Cebrario, Jacqueline Freebury, Mary Joe Ryan, Diane Fasan, Valerie Rigelsford, Laura Carmichael and Maxine Holland. Assisting Mrs. Fasan were Mrs. A. Gordon as pianist, Mrs. H. Shack, Crystal Kusik, Doris and Judy McParland, Sharon and Lenore O'Brien.

On behalf of the parents Giovanni Cebrario presented a gift to Mrs. Fasan in appreciation of her work. Following the program afternoon tea was served.
