Dancing to the music of the Twilighters followed the banquet in the Terrace Bay Moose Hall.

GRADE XIII TRANSPORTATION DISCUSSED

A delegation of interested parents met in the High School on Monday night to ask that the High School Board give serious consideration to transporting Grade XIII students who will attend Schreiber High School next year.

Spokesman for the group was Mr. Lloyd Paulsen and the entire Board of A.Chisholm, W. Cavanaugh, and W. Farrell were present. High School Principal A. Hartman also attended.

The parents presented their case and the Board promised to give the matter every consideration. During a brief question and answer period, one point brought to light was that in all likelihood there will be more Grade XIII students from Terrace Bay attending Schreiber High School next year than there will be from Schreiber itself. Replying to a query on what consideration had been given to establishing a Grade XIII here, the Board indicated that in prolonged negotiation with the Dept. of Education last year a final statement said that although a grant would be given to establish same, they still (Cont'd on pg. 14)
