

ART CLUB NEWS

Another successful weekend course in Art was sponsored by the Terrace Bay Art Club May 22-24th in the Recreation Centre with Mr. John E.B. Watson of Toronto instructing. Mr. Watson was most encouraging, noting the group - representative of the North Shore - was very serious about their work, a factor often lost in clubs.

Friday evening Mr. Watson analyzed one painting submitted by each of the group; Helen Schach of Beardmore, Mary Johnson of Schreiber, Lorna Brown of Red Rock, Ann MacDonald of Marathon and from Terrace Bay Gertrude Boyd, Shirley Hersey, Susan Tao, Win McKechnie, Mary Middaugh, Helen Farrell, Sadie Gaulin and Glenna MacDonald. Also on Friday evening, art supplies were displayed by Don's Painting and Decorating.

Due to the heavy downpour of rain over the weekend, outdoor sessions were changed and Saturday morning found the group studying figure drawing with Jane Colborne as their model. In the afternoon they worked with the same model doing the figure study in oil. For many, this was the first attempt and Mr. Watson was very encouraged with the progress, and members were equally enthusiastic.

Saturday evening he gave a portrait demonstration with Cathy Cavanaugh posing and Sunday morning the group did drawings of head studies with a portrait study in oil during the afternoon. At this session Alice Jean McKechnie was the model.

Invited to a return visit, Mr. Watson was delighted and hoped to do so in the fall. He recalled the work of the Group of Seven, reminding the class this country was a painter's dream. He will be teaching this summer at the Mary and Roman Schneider School of Art in Actinalite and Southampton School of Fine Arts.

With an extensive background in art, Mr. Watson has received many awards and the Director's Scholarship for the best painting of the year at the Doon School in 1953, the Reeves Award in 1957 and Noranda Mines Award in 1959. He was MC of the television series "People with Palettes" on CKSO-TV Sudbury for thirteen weeks, had a one man show in Sudbury, the Canadiana Motor Hotel, and Toronto. He maintains his own studio in Toronto where he conducts small classes in drawing, painting and composition and does commission portraits.
