MR. & MRS. W. LOUK HONORED

Friday evening, Kay and Bill Louk were honored guests at a party at the Moose Hall when over two hundred friends gathered to bid them farewell. Greeted on arrival, Kay received a corsage and Bill a boutonniere and M.C., J. Jeanneret vividly recalled the early days in Terrace Bay with Bill a going concern and instigator of many of the now-established organizations and events. He also brought to light many a mischievous incident, in Bill's background.

On behalf of the Loyal Order of Moose, D. Laporte paid tribute to Bill who had been very active in organizing and on the building committee of the Moose Hall. A note was sent from Mr. J. Ferrier in his absence, also commending Bill for his valued work in the community. A presentation of a painting by S. Gaulin of Cape Victoria, a local scene, was made to
