Diane Billings was guest of honor Sunday when Grades 9A and B combined for a Farewell party at the home of Debbie Anderson. A Danish Good Luck doll was presented to Diane by the classes. Brant Billings was entertained at the home of several chums.

OWN TOPICS

PARTIES HELD FOR PARTINGTON FAMILY

Evelyn and George Partington and their family returned last weekend to make their home in Fort William after thirteen years residence in Terrace Bay. Before they left a party was held in their honor at the home of Audrey and Cleon Smith when their friends presented them with a lovely ceramic vase and fruit bowl.

Wednesday evening Evelyn's many friends gathered at the Moose Hall where a social was held in her honor. Upon arrival a very clever corsage of Kimberly-Clark products was given Evelyn and later she was presented with luggage. Presentation was made by Marg Duriez on behalf of the girls. Two other ladies took the opportunity of making awards to Evelyn; first the miniature trophy won as a member of the Northwestern Ladies Curling Zone Champions by her skip Ida Romanuk, and secondly, Molson's Six-Ender Plaque presented by her skip on that rink, Heather Lafontaine.

The social evening included cards and skits on the sporting episodes of Evelyn's life in Terrace Bay and other humorous incidents, including her days at Walker Lake. Performers were Mary Hale, Vivian Hanna, Ollie Chapman and Phyl Kelty.

Mrs. Husser's Grade 5 class in the Public School held a Farewell Party for Jordy Partington on Friday and his classmates presented him with a squall jacket and a Terrace Bay T-shirt. Drew Partington was guest of honor at a bar-
