

COUNCIL QUOTES

Deputy Reeve V. F. Thomson presided at Tuesday's regular meeting of town council in the municipal chambers.

Two letters from irate residents were read concerning the lack of effective dog catching and the problems created by dogs running at large. Each member of Council also had received verbal complaints.

After due consideration, it was decided to release J. Sweet as dog catcher at the end of this quarter and advertise for a replacement.

The secretary said it had not been necessary to borrow from the bank as authorized by by-law at the last meeting, due to receipt of the balance of Kimberly-Clark taxes.

Replying to J. Thomas' enquiries regarding electrical wiring and equipment, council felt this to be the responsibility of the Aguasabon golf course.

Several purchases were deemed necessary for the continued good operation of the Snack Bar and recreation director Ken Ward requested permission to buy a dishwasher, stainless steel sinks, filing cabinet and adding machine.

The two representatives to the recreation committee said the sinks are an immediate necessity. Council agreed to their purchase, when profits permit.

A formal motion approved the Centennial park project for Terrace Bay, designating the area between the Community church and the Norwood motel for this purpose. Council will first try to obtain the required property involved.

Councillor Cavanaugh forwarded a request by the Knights of Columbus to erect a cross at the Catholic cemetery. He was to look into existing bylaws and report back to council. Spacing at the cemetery is not adequate, Councillor Brown stated.

Councillor Brown had put out tenders for the new police office, but no satisfactory bid was made, and further advertising was authorized.

Enquiries about levelling off streets now that the paving is completed were made by Councillor Fraser. Councillor Brown noted it would be graded as soon as equipment is available. He said street signs were painted and erected again. A discussion on changing of street signs wound up affairs of council.

ST. MARTIN'S SCHOOL GUESTS AT A FIELD DAY

The students of St. Martin's Separate School in Terrace Bay were guests of the Catholic Women's League at a Field Day on Monday held in their School grounds. One hundred and fifty-six girls and boys were winners at a great variety of races under the supervision of the teachers, with small cash prizes given out. Mesdames G. Savoy, G. Dashkewytch, R. Boyle, L. St. Louis, L. Legault, L. McBride, J. Falzetta and A. Regis handed out treats of Freshie, Ice Cream and Chocolate bars to 260 eager recipients.

Father Gallagher drew the ticket on the croquet set and the lucky winner was Mrs. F.A. Helmink and a good time was had through courtesy of the weather man.

INQUEST JURY ADVOCATES LIFE SAVING EQUIPMENT

Coroner, Dr. T.J. Harvey, M.D., of Nipigon presided over a Jury which met on Thursday, June 25th to conduct an investigation into the circumstances surrounding the death by drowning in Hayes Lake, of James Joseph Kilby of Terrace Bay.

A decision of "accidental drowning" was reached and the jury recommended "that life jackets be worn, or similar equipment, approved by the Dept. of Transport. This should be more highly stressed in canoes and similar small boats. We, the jury, further recommend that persons should not be alone when attempting to fish, go boating, or any similar type of sport.

The above recommendations by the jury point up the fact that life saving jackets etc. are not compulsory for canoes or small boats but they believe the regulations should be extended to include them.

Attending the inquest and giving evidence were Russ Downey, Art Reynolds and Leslie Sarka of Terrace Bay.

The investigation was conducted by Corp., W.M. Duncan and Const. Keith Scott, of the Schreiber detachment, O.P.P.
