

L.A. TO CAN. LEGION HOLD FATHER'S DAY TEA

A novel Father's Day Tea was held by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 223 Thursday evening, when Legionnaires were the honored guests, presiding at the tea trays. Pouring tea were: Bill Baillie, Howard Solly, Paul Coupal, Frank Ginn, Jack Yates, Lorne Vezina and Tony Delaronde. The tea table was dainty with an ecru lace cloth and low crystal bowl of gladiolas and carnations, flanked by tapers.

President of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Doris Marcella greeted guests to the Community Church Hall with the Tea Convenor, Mrs. Alice Yates. Servitors were all daughters of Veterans, Misses Betty Yates, Michelle Slattery, Pamela Cumming, Linda Lawrence and Debbie Boyd. Replenishing in the kitchen were: Mesdames Jean Fisher, Polly Daniels, Dot Coupal, Lorette Solly, Aggie Spzak and Minnie Woodruff. Mrs. Dodie Bougie had charge of the Bake Table and Mrs. Stella Gusul took tickets.

PUBLIC SCHOOL STAFF HOLDS FINAL MEETING

As the pupils were happily dismissed from the Terrace Bay Public School Friday morning, the teaching staff held their final meeting of the term. Over coffee and cakes, Principal Mr. W.F. Colborne presented staff gifts to Mrs. Carol Hanson and Miss Drena DeGroot, two of the teachers who will not be returning in the fall.

School Board members, J. Shivas, J. Beddard, W. Hanley accompanied Chairman A. Pattison, who on behalf of the Board, presented Mr. and Mrs. Colborne with a beautiful oil painting, a local scene by Sadie Gaulin. Mr. Pattison expressed the appreciation of the Board to both Mr. and Mrs. Colborne for the high standards they have held in the six years they spent on the staff. Feeling it a real pleasure to have been associated with them, he wished them well in their new home in Port Arthur, and to Mr. Colborne on the staff of the Gron Morgan School. Thanking the School Board, Mr. Colborne said both he and his wife had enjoyed their years here and would always consider it a second home, returning as often as possible.

SCHREIBER SOCIAL NEWS

Before she left for a new home in Fort William Mrs. Alfredo Spadoni was honored by her friends at a party in the Guild Hall. On their behalf Mrs. Sam Maronese presented a pole lamp and purse to Mrs. Spadoni with the group's good wishes.

Jim McCuaig of Toronto is here to spend the summer with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Lester McCuaig.

Miss Cynthia Bond of Fort William is the guest of Miss Lorraine Nesbitt.

Visiting with the various Nesbitt families are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Sullivan and Tom Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiesensel, with Anne and Michael, all of New York City.

Mrs. W.T. Wallace returns this week after visiting her mother in New York City and other relatives in Buffalo.

SOCIAL NEWS (Continued)

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Remillard, with Danny and Lissa, of the Soo are visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. Laine

Miss Judy Olson of Ottawa is visiting friends here.

Alex Tweedy of Beardmore spent the weekend visiting old friends, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whent have returned from a short holiday in Toronto where Mrs. Whent attended the Rebekah Assembly.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stefurak and family are holidaying in Southern Ontario.

A gratifying amount was realized by the Women's Institute Penny Auction with Mrs. Mary Jarva winning the blanket and Mrs. T. Bolan the door prize.

John Needham is spending the summer on a farm in Saskatchewan, in preparation for the course he intends taking at the Agriculture College.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Stitt of Renfrew are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Stitt.

Patricia McParland is in the office at Chapples for the summer.

Shiela Weaver is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harris in Chapleau.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Weberg have moved to Terrace.

In procession the Explorers were led by the Canadian Girls In Training and their leaders, Mrs. B. Whent and Mrs. K. Getlert, into the Sanctuary of St. Andrew's United Church for their graduation into the C.G.I.T. Sharon Smith, Chief explorer, led the congregation in worship and Linda Pitkanen and Judy Richardson read the Scripture and Prayer.

Mrs. M. Gander conducted the Graduation ceremony with Nancy Spillane responding for the C.G.I.T. Certificates were presented by Mrs. N. Fummerton to S. Smith, C. Pike, B. Weaver, L. Pitkanen, and J. Richardson.

These five also received their "E" achievement pins to be worn on their C.G.I.T. uniforms. The pins signify that the girls have earned six stars.

Mrs. Whent gave the formal welcome into the C.G.I.T. Rev. Muldrew addressed the girls.

Ushers for the service were Monica Frommann and Janet Hamilton with Elizabeth Crawley giving the programs.

Following the services coffee and desert was served in the Church Hall, with Mrs. R. Macadam and Mrs. M. Smith presiding at the tea table, and Mrs. F. Fisher replenishing.

During the evening the Explorers sang some of their favourite songs, accompanied by Mrs. C. Pike.