LABOUR DAY WARNING

"At five p.m. on Friday, September 4th, the starter's Green Flag will go down for the annual Labour Day Holiday. You and your neighbour and all who use the streets and highways will contribute to the heavy traffic during this period," said Constable John Warfield of Terrace Bay.

"When the 'checkered flag' goes down at Midnight on Labour Day wouldn't it be nice if everyone had got home safely again. Unfortunately, many people will not get home safely and some will never come home again.

"Each year Labour Day weekend is the peak travel period of the year. (Cont'd P. 10)
