WEDDING VOWS EXCHANGED IN ORILLIA.

A marriage of local interest took place in the Church of the Guardian Angels, Orillia, Ontario, at 11 a.m. on Saturday, August 15th, when Joan Catherine, daughter of Mrs.Rolland and the late Mr.George J.Rolland, became the bride of Peter Anthony, son of Mr.and Mrs. Wm. Adamo of Terrace Bay.

Monsignor F.K.Lee officiated at the ceremony and the groom's sister, Miss Edith Adamo sang "On This Day" and "Panis Angelicus" Ave Marie. She was accompanied by Mr.George Travis of Orillia.

Given in marriage by her eldest brother, Ronald, the bride wore a full length gown of silk organza over satin, accented with Alencon lace and seed pearls, terminating in a chapel train. An orange blossom crown held a silk illusion veil and she carried a cascade of pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis.

Main of honor was Miss Joanne Rolland, a niece of the bride and bridesmaids were the Misses Mary Walton, cousin of the bride, Catherine Rolland, a niece, Cecilia Adamo, sister of the groom and Mrs.Jack Nemchin. Flower girls were Maureen Rolland, a niece of the bride and Karen Fabbro, a niece of the groom.

The bridesmaids were gowned alike in heavenly blue street length gowns of peau de soie, styled with bateau necklines and three quarter sleeves. The flower girls wore white silk organza over heavenly blue peau de soie. The attendants carried white baskets of pink and white shasta daisies and their headdressed were miniature pill boxes accented by blue stephanotis. The flower girls wore circlets of blue stephanotis.

The best man was Mr.Eugene Adamo, brother of the groom and ushers were Sergio Fabbro, Mark Rolland, Lou Rolland and Doug Rolland.

For an afternoon reception at the Callons and later reception at the Birchmere Hotel the bride's mother chose a turquoise dress in Chantilly lace with matching feather hat, white accessories and a corsage of pink roses.
