

The Schreiber News

October 1, 1964

Winning team in the Ladies' Baseball series, with Pat McCouan who presented the trophy. L. to R.:- E. Thrower, L. Morris, D. Weaver, L. Fadden, A. Richardson, E. Nesbitt, C. Morris and P. McCouan.

Daryl Lynn Weaver Wins Three Trophies

The ladies' baseball league annual banquet with various presentations was held in the United Church hall. Mrs. Lorraine Fadden, president, welcomed members and guests. The winners' trophy and smaller replicas were presented to Twilights captain Avilia Richardson and team members Daryl Lynn Weaver, Ethel Nesbitt, Lorraine Fadden, Evelyn Thrower, Chris Morris, Laura Morris, Norma McLellan and Helen Nesbitt.

Daryl Lynn Weaver received the trophy for most home runs, presented by Lorraine Bedard. Audrey Bryar was runner-up.

Avilia Richardson received the most improved player trophy presented by Ethel Nesbitt. Runner-up was Rolande Bedard.

Evelyn Thrower received the most sportsmanlike player award, presented by Muriel Nesbitt, who remarked that this is the first time trophies for most home runs, most valuable and a place on the winning team had been captured by the same person. Roxanne Hill received a trophy for most valuable spare player. Lorraine Huard was runner-up.

Other team captains Barbara Arnold and Rolande Bedard spoke briefly paying tribute to coaches Fred McColeman, Dan Ray and Lawrence Guillet, and umpires Neil Ross and Pat McCouan. The president also thanked the Kinsmen for the use of their hut on the ball park during the season.

ANNUAL HAT SHOW WELL ATTENDED

The fourth annual Hat Show, sponsored by the Busy Bees of St. John's Anglican Church was attended by an extra large crowd.

The hats of fabric and feathers, were in designs for both formal and everyday wear, with children's included, and some amusing eye-catching, strictly teenage ones. While the models displayed the large Fall collection of hats, the crowd enjoyed a delightful luncheon of strawberry shortcake.

Modeling for the Show were Mrs. H. Haughn, and Mrs. B. Hayes of Terrace Bay, Mesdames N. Glad, B. Lidkea, J. Rigelsford, and Misses S. Harness, P. Dimmery, M. Powiss and L. Lidkea.

A display of bags, gloves and shoes were shown, with Mrs. W. Miller and Mrs. J. Corbett in charge of selling these items.

Mrs. J. Winters convened the event and Mrs. K. Williamson was in charge of the make-up.

SCHREIBER HIGH SCHOOL STAFF

The Schreiber High School have one-hundred and seventy-four enrolled, with their staff as follows: O.B. Fasan, Math; (Gr. IX), J. Finnbogasin, English and History; J. Tessier, French; W. Woodrow, French, Geography and Phys. Ed. Mrs. R. Mulligan, Math and Phys. Ed. R. Cote, Science, Hist. Math; P. Mostovac, Latin, English; W. Atwood, Hist. Geog and English, J. Thomasing, Geography and Phys.

COURSE ON 'SAFE GUN HANDLING'

A group of eager hunters watch closely as Harvey McCanna explains the safe measures in gun handling.

This course, originally designed by the Rod and Gun Club, is now compulsory for those taking a gun license for the first time.

In the background Chief of Police S.W. Timmerman studies the group, as he assisted with the course.

CATHOLIC PARENT - TEACHERS MEET

Mrs. S. Chicoine, newly elected president, was in charge of the Catholic Parent - Teachers' Association meeting on September 17th, with Father Cano opening in prayer.

Rev. Sister Frances Joseph, School Principal introduced her staff and spoke briefly on the decision to have parents meet with teachers only at report time.

Mrs. B. Mullins agreed to canvas for membership dues.

It was agreed to cater for the Communion' breakfast in October and Mrs. L. Bryar will convene this event.

Mrs. R. Campbell agreed to convene the raffle of a coffee percolator (Cont'd on Page 9)

