COMMUNITY MOURNS PASSING OF HERMAN ROBERTS

Funeral services for the late Herman Roberts, age 51, who passed away suddenly October 21, were conducted Saturday afternoon at two from the Terrace Bay Community Church. At the close of the hymn "Unto the Hills Do I Lift Up Mine Eyes", Rev. T. Garnett Husser described him as a pillar, saying "for he stood tall among us and surely his heart was in his community, his work and his home." Praising his devotion to organizations serving the community, the Boy Scouts and Kiwanis, Rev. Husser felt his works would be a living memorial to this fine man.

Born December 27, 1912 in Earlton, Ontario he had received his schooling in Kapuskasing. Joining the Kimberly-Clark Corporation in Kapuskasing on January 1, 1920, Mr. Roberts had transferred to their Terrace Bay Mill May 17, 1948. Starting here as a Mechanical Foreman he became Trades Supervisor November 5, 1950, working in that capacity until his demise. He served as a gunner in the Armoured Corps from 1944 to 1946.

Married to the former Jean Brewtnal in Iroquois Falls April 22, 1946, he is survived by his wife, son David, daughters Barbara and Ann at home, sisters Pearl, Mrs. J.K. Knights of Fort William, Kay, Mrs. J. Stevenson of Kapuskasing and Marge, Mrs. A. Andrews of Kapuskasing and a brother, Edward of Guelph. He was predeceased by a son Ralph in 1956 and a daughter Lynn in 1957.

Arriving for the burial service were Mrs. J.K. Knights of Fort William, her son Jim Knights of Little Long Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. J. Stevenson and Mr. and Mrs. A. Andrews of Kapuskasing, Mr. Edward Roberts of Guelph, Mr. and Mrs. John Freeman of Red Rock and Mr. and Mrs. Simon Cournoyer and Jeanette from Ansonville.

A very active member of the Scout Movement, Mr. Roberts had this year received his thirty-five year service bar. In 1942 he had also been recognized with a model presented in Kapuskasing for special services to the Scout Group. Working in Terrace Bay first as a Scout Master, he later became a charter member of the Boy Scout Group Committee, working in almost every capacity. As a Past President, he had been called on to become Acting Chairman this year and was also Camp Chairman, a project he had fostered through from its inception, at White Sand Lake.

He was also a member of Terrace Bay Lodge AF & AM 662 for the past fourteen years. Another phase of his intense activity was with the Terrace Bay Kiwanis Club. One of the oldest members, he was currently President of the local Club, having held many officers prior to this year.

Pallbearers were Ted Brown, Bill Farrell, Don Boudreau, Jim Hale, Scouters Alphonse Theriault and Paul Maleshewski and leading into the Cemetery a guard of honor and Scouts and Scouters paid their final tribute to one of their staunchest supporters.

A Masonic Service was conducted in the Terrace Bay Community Church on Friday evening.
