CHAMBER PRESIDENT SWORN IN

Members of Council of the Terrace Bay Chamber of Commerce held their first meeting Thursday evening in the Recreation Centre with Reeve J.P. Heenan accepting the oath of office from President Neil Cornthwaite and Vice President Walter McMicking.

The President informed his Council members of Ken Wepler's acceptance to serve as Auditor with Bill Baillie. With only one standing committee established to date, Membership Chairman Joe Comisso was prepared with dues notices. A motion authorized the purchase of membership cards and materials. Mr. McMicking reminded Council members of the suggestions previously offered with regards to assessments and collection of dues, and the President tabled this item for a general meeting.

The Armistice Service was causing considerable confliction of dates, members noted, with the local service being held on Saturday, November 7th. Merchants were not in favor of closing for the ceremony and again on the statutory holiday. The business sector favored Sunday over a Saturday, and enquiries would be made before the next year's Remembrance Service.

The President read a copy of the Brief presented by the Marathon Chamber of Commerce to the Ontario Cabinet when they met in the Lakehead last month. Their request with regard to the Opening of the Killala Lake Road had received the support of the Terrace Bay Chamber. The Marathon Chamber had been congratulated for this brief.

An increase in membership fees with the Canadian Chamber of Commerce was accepted. The President would be unable to attend the meeting of the Upper Lake (Continued on P. 4)

CURLING CLUB NEWS

On Tuesday, Nov. 3rd an open social was held in the Club Lounge. Films on the art of curling and on the MacDonald Brier Playdowns in New Brunswick were shown by Projectionist B. Hayes.

In the first film Ken Watson, past master of the game, demonstrated rock delivery, position of the hand etc., all of particular interest to new curlers.

The second film featured last year's MacDonald Brier Playdowns and, besides showing the brilliant curling, gave those viewing it an insight into the friendliness of the Prince Edward Island people and the popularity of the sport.

Dancing followed and lunch was served by Mrs. J. Coons and Mrs. R. Lafontaine of the Ladies' Club. Refreshments were dispensed by K. Johnson and L. Vezina of the Men's Club.

NOTE: ICE is now available for practise sessions.
