Continuing he remarked that if wars be generated out of the social order by injustice and forgetfulness of God, did it not behoove us to examine our national conscience. Father Gallagher advised we turn the searchlight into our own consciences, particularly those of us who protest against the destruction of the Churches and Synagogues abroad, yet how seldom go into a Church or Synagogue. "What is the use of the world overthrowing a Hitler or a Stalin if it keeps the spirit that breeds them?"

To oppose a nation justly as the enemy of God we must believe in God; we may not smash its idols and keep our own. We cannot ignore God in our national life and expect him to be with us in our international relations; we must wake up to the old historical truth that the loss of God is the beginning of tyranny."

The Terrace Bay Band began and closed the service with the National Anthem and The Queen respectively and accompanying the hymn "Oh God Our Help in Ages Past."

Wreathes were laid by Caccamo's Ltd., Robinson Store, Anford's Ltd., Waghorn's Pharmacy, Tony's Hairstyling, Silver Birch Chapter No.264, O.E.S., Costa's Foodmaster, Township of Terrace Bay, Circle Route Garage, Ida's Restaurant, Scouts and Guides of Terrace Bay, Ladies Auxiliary to Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 223, Plaza Restaurant, Catholic Women's League, Imperial Motel, Kimberly-Clark Pulp and Paper Corporation, Knights of Columbus, Liquor Control Board of Ontario, Loyal Order of Moose Lodge No.1752, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers No.1861, Terrace Bay Community Credit Union, Royal Canadian Legion Branch 223, Navy League, Kiwanis Club Inc., International Brotherhood Pulp Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers Local 665, and for the Mothers of Canada, Mrs. E.
