TOWN TOPICS

SOCIAL NEWS

Out-of-town guests at the Dejonghe wedding included Mr. and Mrs. P. Jorgenson, Mr. and Mrs. G. Fecteau and F. Pellitier of Port Arthur, Misses Carol and Della Lane, Mr. and Mrs. H. Machan and B. Consonogo of Fort William and Mr. and Mrs. J. Ushenko of Sault Ste. Marie.

A Get Acquainted' Shower was held last week for bride-elect Lilliam Schaffer of Port Arthur by Marjorie and Barbara Dejonghe at the latter's home. A corsage was pinned on the guest of honor as she was seated in a decorated chair under an umbrella, and her many gifts were presented from a gaily decorated basket. The ladies enjoyed several games and Martha Strome assisted the hostesses in serving lunch.

Sympathy is extended to Clarence Buck on the sudden passing of his brother Ralph in Windsor. Pat and Clarence left immediately for Windsor. Many residents may recall Ralph as the Superintendent of the Steam Plant in 1947 to 1949.

Sharon Uschenko and children of Sault Ste. Marie are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Marquis for two weeks. She was accompanied down for the weekend by her husband John. Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Fecteau of Port Arthur were also guests of the Marquis' over the weekend.

Mr. Harry Ward is visiting with his son Mr. A. Ward and family in Fort William.

REMEMBRANCE DAY TEA HELD

The Remembrance Day Tea held annually by the Ladies Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion, Branch 223, was a well-attended event on Wednesday afternoon, in St. Martin's Church Hall. Welcoming the guests to the hall festooned with red, white and blue, were President Mrs. Doris Marcella and Convenor Mrs. H. Solly.

Flanked by white tapers in tall silver candleabra a motif of aircraft, armoured vehicles, soldiers and paratroopers centred the tea table, the words 'Lest We Forget' in red poppies on the draped white cloth. Pouring during the afternoon were Mesdames J. Fisher, V. Fedorak, S. Benko, S. Gusul, J. Mercier, R. Johnson, M. Woodruff and D. Marcella. The individual tea tables each centred with a miniature remembrance and flag were served by daughters of Veterans: Betty Yates, Verna and Barbara Daley, Mary Clare Coupal, Lita Marie Boudreau and Karen Lundberg. Replenishing were Mesdames M. Crawford and I. McInnes.

A busy spot with the children was the Fish Pond attended by Mrs. D. Baillentine. The well laden Bake Table was convened by Mesdames D. Coupal and P. Daniels and Mrs. S. Gusul had charge of the Sewing table. Mrs. E. Boyd was in charge of tea tickets.

REPRINTED FROM PICTON GAZETTE

Those Greeting Cards which flooded the mails last year are again arriving - quite unsolicited, and by most people, unwanted. There is no obligation to send money in payment or to return them. They can be refused or returned, postage collect, if desired. Just write "return to sender" or "refused" on package and drop in post office, if you wish.

We are not impressed by the appeal which is made in connection with these cards. We have read a number of articles, (Cont'd on Pg. 4)
