REPRINT FROM THE PICTON GAZETTE (Cont'd Pg. 2) which reveal that the handicapped artists receive little reward.

To us, it appears as a smart bit of promotion, and it would be interesting to see a financial statement.

Many people last year thought they were obligated to send money - even though they did not order, or want, the cards. There is no need to do so unless you feel they are worth this to you as cards.

We believe such unsolicited mailings of merchandise should be prohibited.

KEPT SALES TAX (Port Arthur News Chronicle)

C. and F. Electronics, Algoma St. Port Arthur, and the president of the firm John Frigeri, pleaded guilty today at Port Arthur Police Court to four charges of infractions against the Ontario Retail Sales Tax Act.

KIMBERLY - CLARK CHRISTMAS PARTY

A very disappointing number turned out for the first planning meeting for this year's Christmas Party last Friday. With time a very important factor and a great deal of help required for the event, it is discouraging to see such lack of adult interest.

However, those in attendance agreed that plans should commence, so that a gift committee has been formed and orders will be placed this week. It was taken for granted that people were happy with last year's party, as no one turned up with any complaints or new recommendations.

This year's party will follow the same general plan. With a party, gifts and candy (Continued on Page 5)
