parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wood over Christmas.

The John Schritts had his brother, Peter of Fort William, visiting over Christmas and brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schritt and family of Wirkler, Manitoba, over the Christmas holidays.

BOUDREAU FAMILY HONORED BEFORE LEAVING

Ruth and Paul Boudreau with their children Greg, Jane, Ann, Ellen, Susan, Patricia and Mary Lou left Terrace Bay last week to make their home in Toronto. Prior to their departure their many friends entertained them in their homes and a party of old-timers of Terrace Bay's early days gathered at the home of Betty and Forbes Cruickshank to bid them farewell. Presenting them with a painting of a local scene, Mr. Ed Cavanaugh reminisced on their early days and many humorous incidents. Ellen Hodgkiss accompanied an impromptu singsong at the piano and the highlight of the evening occurred as Mr. W. McMicking arrived with his bagpipes.

Ruth was the guest of honor at a supper bridge by her bridge club at the home of Mrs. Elsie Ostling and a purse was presented with their good wishes. Another bridge club gave her pearls and earrings prior to her leaving. (Continued next column)

HOWARD NICHOLL FETED ON DEPARTURE

Before leaving Schreiber for Chapleau where he was transferred by the CPR, Assistant Mechanical Supervisor Howard Nicholl was presented with a wallet and money by his fellow employees. Mr. R. Dietrich has come from Sudbury to replace Mr. Nicholl.
