CATHOLIC GIRLS (Continued from front page)
drapes purchased by the club for the Guild Hall were now paid in full.

Marilyn Cook's group will hold a coffee break in January, the date to be set later. Cathy McGrath reported cards sent out and a spiritual bouquet had been sent to Father Cano by the Club.

Father Cano gave a brief talk on "Maturity" and then introduced the new directors, Mrs. Lloyd Small and Mrs. Martin Ryan.

The president thanked the ladies who had prepared and served the dinner, Mesdames S. Maronese, J. Trichilo, Armand Huard, Art Huard, G. Cebrario, J. McGrath, Frank Figliomeni and the Misses Carol Lalonde, Cathy O'Brien and Doris McParland.

Following the meeting a social evening was held when Santa Claus, represented by Mrs. Con Duggan visited and there was an exchange of gifts. A humorous skit "Gossiping over the Clothesline" was presented by Lou McGrath's group and Mr. O. B. Fasan showed a film of the October "Crowning" Pageant.

Miss Janice Shaw and Peter Minoletti of Fort William were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Innes West this week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Whent and Neil Whent spent Christmas with the Gerald Whents in White River.

Mrs. L. R. Parchem and Julie visited for two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Skinner. Mrs. A. R. Parchem of London, Ontario accompanied them and spent a few days here. On their return to Carlisle, Ont., Mrs. Skinner accompanied them. Mr. Skinner joined them for the Christmas holiday, spent at Carlisle and London and he and Mrs. Skinner have now returned home.

Mr. Jim Scott of Winnipeg spent Christmas here with his brother and sisters.

Mr. Bill Anderson of Winnipeg was also a guest at the Short Scotts, visiting his nieces and nephews for the Holiday season.

Miss Donna Slater, R.N., of London, Ont., spent Christmas with Dianne and Dom. Figliomeni and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Scott and Mrs. T. R. McBride will spend New Years with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Potvin in Seven Isles, Quebec.

Miss Lucette Chicoine is home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Chicoine for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robbins of Montreal spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Fischer.

Mrs. Norman McCuaig and Jeanne have returned from a visit to London and brought her daughter Mrs. Wilfred McLaughlin and baby son back with her for a visit.

Home for Christmas to visit their parents, Rev. and Mrs. R. J. S. Inshaw, were Miss Lois Inshaw, John Inshaw and Mrs. Inshaw of Toronto and Philip Inshaw of Marathon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jones of Ft. William were guests of the George Burns for Christmas.
