brain and the fact that the alcoholic is never completely cured, only arrested.

Also in the Senior Division, Alan Aylward of Red Rock asked his audience "What a Policeman means to You?" Due to the corrective measures of his daily work the Policeman's lot in our society is never really accepted, he noted, though Society needed him more and more every day. Also from Red Rock, Christine Climie spoke on "Citizenship" explaining citizens were the ingredients of democracy. Members in a free nation have a duty to fulfill; to vote, to speak or worship as they pleased. From Schreiber Gayle Worrill chose to talk on the "Congo Massacre". She compared the history of the people involved, but described the brutalities by the whites that had created the build-up of hate in the Congo. The power of love and compassion could be the only solution she felt.

meeting in the Lakehead on February 9th where this matter will be brought before all representatives.

A special word of praise goes to Marathon ladies who so ably competed in the N'western Ontario playdowns, finishing up in a five-way tie for second place. Elsie Forsyth's Port Arthur rink was the winner in the N.W.O.L.C.A. playdowns.

LEGION LADIES SPONSOR MARCH OF DIMES

Mrs. Lorette Solly chaired a general meeting Sunday evening of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Royal Can. Legion, Br. 223 in the Legion hall, with 18 members present. Minutes and correspondence were given by Mrs. Jean Fisher and Mrs. Stella Gusul gave the financial report.

Mrs. Jack Little was installed as a new member and members enjoyed an exchange of gifts. Mrs. B. Fawcett won the Pot of Gold which she donated to the Welfare Fund. Winners of the recent Home Bingo were announced.

The Auxiliary will sponsor the March of Dimes here and Mrs. Jack Yates will be in charge.

LOCAL MEMBERS ATTEND CURLING MEETING

Five members from the Terrace Bay Ladies Curling Club, Ida Romanuk, president of the Northwestern Ontario Ladies Curling Association, Norma Crockford, secretary of that organization, Elsie Ostling and Sylvia Duquette, voting delegates and Jayne Coons, president of the Terrace Bay Club, journeyed to Kenora over the weekend to attend the meeting of the N.W.O.L.C.A. This meeting was of the greatest interest this year as Terrace Bay was hoping to present their resolution to all seventeen delegates present in its entirety. The resolution was subjected to an amendment deleting a very important bargaining point which was unacceptable to Terrace Bay. Terrace Bay, Marathon and Schreiber voted against this amendment and the proposed resolution was defeated by a seven to three vote. Due to train schedules seven delegates did not vote.

Terrace Bay Club members will attend the Ontario Ladies Curling Association Silver D Meet-
