

COUNCIL (Continued from page 1) to enter the annual N.F.P.A. contest on this basis and neither had he availed himself of regular sources of publicity. Boundary lines for the Fire Truck were also discussed at length. Only in the event of an extreme disaster, and this at the discretion of the Fire Chief, could the Fire Truck be taken out of the restricted hydrant area.

Constables Warfield and Cuff reported for the Police Department and will be advised to register at one Police School, most suitable to local needs.

On behalf of Circle Route Service Glen Pearen again sought a license, basing his request on withdrawal of the B.A. Garage. Noting the town By-law limits garages to two council motioned to issue the second garage license to Mr. Pearen. Reeve Adamo expressed the opinion as taxpayers they should be allowed to build and operate.

Accounts passed for payment were as follows:- Public Library $385.31, Hydro $8,733.87, Township $32,852.83 and Snack Bar $4,166.08.

Councillor Brown had the Police Budget ready and would hold a special meeting within the week. Questions by Councillor Cavanaugh on the Snack Bar were held over to a special meeting on financing scheduled for Tuesday, at 7 o'clock. Municipal employees had met and discussed the proposed benefit plan. A meeting would be arranged with Mr. J. Griffiths to present this plan.

Councillor Cavanaugh had discussed and found there could be other property available for relocating the cemeteries. He recommended also for consideration, a program to install a playground or tot lot behind Lakeview Drive, seeking a start on such a plan with the aid of a winter works program. This was felt to be a good spot and the Secretary was instructed to look into the winter works program.

Councillor Brown advised on his study on the parking problem at St. Martin's Church. The Town crew were establishing the curb and erecting signs preventing parking on one side of the street.
