

BOYS' CHOIR

A guitar and accordion duet by Tony and Danny McGrath preceded a full choir number.

Mrs. Anford Chicoine presided for the regular business meeting. Mrs. Larry Bourke was appointed to attend the Association convention in Toronto during April and Mrs. J. Caccamo agreed to convene a hot-cross-bun and bake sale on April 15.

Principal Rev. Sister Frances Joseph stated the exams will commence on April 5th and that the recently-formed book club had an enthusiastic response and books would shortly be mailed to members. She also presented three students from upper grades who gave speeches: Marilyn Cook whose topic was Brazil--Susanne Chicoine who chose Captain Cooke's Adventurous Journeys and Guerard McGrath on spoke on the Wonders of HongKong.

The attendance price was won by Mr. Tony Speziale room--an honor coveted by the students in that class. The draw prize, plastic baskets donated by Mrs. Costa, was won by Mrs. D. Huard. Lunch was served by Mrs. R. B. Spadoni's committee.

BUSY BEES PRESENT HAT SHOW

The Busy Bees of the Anglican Church held their Spring Hat Show in the town hall with the seven models displaying seventy designs for varied occasions

Mrs. Gladys Madigan was commentator and the models were Miss Dorothy Slater, Miss Linda Lidkea, Mesdames Bob Krause, Bruce Lidkea, Wally Weaver, Alvin Slater and Cyril Sparkes.

As an added attraction a counter of new Spring purses, gloves, scarves and jewellery was offered for sale.

The guests, seated at tables, enjoyed tea and small cakes as the hats were shown.

Mrs. Cyril Sparkes and Mrs. Geoff. Birch were called to Kakabeka on Sunday by the death of their father, the late Jack Ball. Mr. Sparkes and Mr. Birch accompanied their wives.

Devona Leisander's name was inadvertently omitted from the Tweenie's list of girls recently received into the Brownie pack.

Many old Schreiber friends attended the funeral of the late Clarence Cottam in White River on Sunday. During his working years as yardmaster in the CPR yards there Clarence was acknowledged past master in the art of the practical joke, so much enjoyed by railroaders.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Reed and son Jeff, of Fort William, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Holmes. The Holmes' also have their granddaughter, Sheeley Holmes of Winnipeg with them.
