Two mystery prizes went to Donna Nygaard and Giselle Walter. A special gift was also presented to Paddy Newton. Among the business discussed was a decision to have no games scheduled for the week prior to Easter Sunday.

If alleys are available, the new schedule will begin Oct. 1. Following the dinner members adjourned to the town hall for a cabaret party with guests invited.

ANGLICAN CONFIRMATION NEXT SUNDAY

Right Rev. W.L.Wright, Archbishop of the Anglican Diocese of Algoma will administer the sacred rite of Confirmation at St. John's Anglican Church on Sunday, June 20th at 3.30 in the afternoon.

PUBLIC LIBRARY BOARD MEETS

The public library board held its last meeting for the summer June 9 with H. M. Ermel presiding.

Miss Gwen Hadley, secretary, stated new book covers have arrived and the new card envelopes will again have the rules for borrowing printed on the face. She said 102 of the new books ordered by the committee are here. These will be placed on separate shelf for borrowers' convenience.

Mr. R. Guillet's suggestion for a centennial project for the library was rejected as too costly.

A letter of appreciation was sent to Lionel Bourguignon who had donated books to the library and a similar note will be sent to Mr. Kyle of Toronto.

Insurance was raised to $5,000. The film strips required to complete the series on Canada for use in the schools was ordered.

Librarian Mrs. Ross Hill was granted the first two weeks in August for vacation. Mrs. Hill stated there were 1,250 books loaned in March, 1,209 in April and 1,064 in May.

A new electric clock has been installed and the board is waiting for new flags. One lost book was reported paid for by the borrower.

ST. JOHN AMBULANCE BRIGADE COMMENDED

St. John Ambulance is presently making its appeal to the public for funds and is one organization whose contribution to community welfare is obvious. By invitation members will attend any public gathering to afford first aid in case of accident.

They recently received a letter commending them for their response when asked to assist at the recent train wreck. During the past year St. John Ambulance conducted three senior first aid classes and one preliminary one. At present the group is in the midst of their Save-a-Life campaign.

The public is cordially invited to attend the annual inspection June 23, at 8 p.m. in the town hall when demonstrations of their work are presented.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE TO SELL SPOONS

Buried seeds grow but never buried talents," was the topic for a Schreiber Women's Institute meeting June 8 with Mrs. Wesley Miller presiding.

Mrs. C. Todesco, secretary, was instructed to contact various organizations about the sale of WI spoons. Arrangements were made to hold a penny auction on June 16.

A donation was approved for the Canadian Bible Society.

After some discussion members agreed to not hold a picnic in August as has been the custom, but to have a banquet in September when meetings are resumed. It was decided to not enter any exhibits from the WI for the fall fair.

Mrs. Roy Anderson, who is leaving to make her home in Nipigon was presented with a vase in appreciation of her work with the WI.

DISTRICT CUBOREE HELD IN SCHREIBER

The Arena was filled with the din of 150 jubilant Cubs when packs from Manitouwadge, Marathon, Terrace Bay and Schreiber held the fourth Pic River Cuboree. A welcome by district commissioner R. Wills of Terrace was followed by a grand howl led by P. Maleshewski.

There were various games, tests in first and second star work and, during a pop break, crests were presented. The standard of cub work was high and it was only by a slim margin that the Marathon continued..
