TABLOID SPORTS DAY AT HOLY ANGELS

The third annual tabloid sports day of Holy Angels Separate School was well attended by parents and friends of the students. Adding to the occasion were the gay Indian costumes worn by teachers R.Guillet and T.Speziale who were in charge of the affair.

There were twenty-five events and with twenty-five teams of five each the competition was keen and vociferously encouraged. The winning team was Maria Veneziano, Maureen Campbell, Rosemary Speziale, Mary McGrath, Joe Figliomeni and Frank Muia.

Contests included skipping, push-ups, rope jumping, ball kick, ring-in-the bottles, blindfold walk, bat balance, standing broad jump, balance walk, ball on spoon, bowling, ball in basket, nailing, base running, horseshoes, ball on hoop toss, badminton keepup, bean bag toss, ball toss and pick-up, standing and sitting high jump and pingpong toss.

Some events were planned for skill and a few for just fun and the audience enjoyed them all. Refreshments were served midway in the program. The Rev.Sisters of the school staff assisted and also several high school students whose help was greatly appreciated.

Among those who were in Port Arthur to congratulate Marlene Birch on her graduation as a nurse were her parents, brothers and sisters--Mr.and Mrs. Geoff Birch, Bryan, Philip, Linda and Terry-Lynne, Mr.and Mrs.George Birch, Mrs.Ted Wilson, Mrs. George McBride and the Misses Bea McBride, Marilyn Pearson, Carole Lalonde and Doris McParland, Mr.and Mrs.Cyril Sparkes and Dale Sparkes.

Mr.and Mrs.Rene Bedard have with them the former's mother, Mrs.Eva Bedard, and his brother Lucien of North Bay.

Mr.and Mrs.Bob Fournier spent the weekend visiting Mr.Fournier Sr., who has been in St.Josephs Hospital, Port Arthur for two months.

Mr.and Mrs.George Duncan, Mr.and Mrs.Bill Duncan of McCreary, Man.and Mr.and Mrs.Leo Aber of Sault Ste.Marie over the weekend.
