Any groups or individuals desiring public classes in the Fall should contact Mrs. Jartus during July or August in order that advance schedules and supplies can be drawn up by the field representative.

BURNED-OUT FAMILY ASSISTED

The CP and T Committee of the Oddfellow and Rebekah Lodges, with the help of other organizations who collected, were able to substantially help the Cress Family of Port Coldwell who were burned out recently.

Mrs. Cress, whose husband died in March this year, was living in the family house with one child at the time of the fire. Both escaped injury but the blaze took the house and all contents.

A transport and driver delivered the many items collected.
