SISTERS RE-UNITED AFTER EIGHTEEN YEARS

Mr.and Mrs.Reg.Yates had Mrs.Yates' father, John Quarrell and her sister, Mrs.N.E.Terry of Elgin, Murrayshire, Scotland, visiting them. This is the first meeting of the two sisters in almost eighteen years.

Mr.Quarrell, who served through two wars with the Cameron Highlanders, is now retired and commutes between Scotland and Canada, dividing his time between Mrs.Terry and her daughter and his two sons, William and John Jr. and daughter Margaret (Mrs.F.J.Ferguson) at the Lakehead, and Chris (Mrs.Yates) in Schreiber.

JOYCE VALENTINO MARRIES JOHN JAROSJ

The interior of Holy Angels Roman Catholic Church in Schreiber was adorned with pink gladiolus for the wedding on July 31st of Joyce Esther Valentino, daughter of Mr.and Mrs.Evasio Valentino and John Jarosj, son of Mrs.Joseph Jarosj of Renwer, Man., and the late Mr.Jarosj. Father J.M.Cano officiated, Miss Carole Lalonde was organist and Giovanni Cebario the soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of nylon over taffeta, the basque bodice having bias band centered with rose patterned lace applique, scoop neckline and lily point sleeves. The controlled skirt with flat front was enhanced by spray of lace applique. Unpressed pleats widened to form a chapel train fastened by a self tie bow and streamers. Her headdress was a spray of forget-me-nots and seed pearls centered by satin roses holding a four-tier scalloped veil of silk illusion. She carried a crescent of Red Delight roses highlighted with white satin leaves.

The bridesmaid, Miss Marion Prescott, chose a short gown in shrimp organza over taffeta with controlled fullness in the skirt, three quarter sleeves and scoop neckline. Interest centred in a wide deep
