Half Mile, boys - Norman Bottomley, Ron Turner of Marathon and Stanley Spadoni.

Judges for the baby show were Mrs. Gino Caccamo and Mrs. Bill Woodrow, both nurses. Mrs. Bob Gray assisted. Seventeen babies were entered and prizes went to Judy McBride, Shanon Riley, Maurice Ferland, Frankie Costa, Judy Godin, Tracy Jolicoeur, Gordon Nicol, Angelique Woods, Catherine Campbell, Mark Britton and Glen Holland.

The twenty-five silver dollar draw was won by Mrs. Archie McColeman and the Meteor car by Michael Chepelski of Terrace Bay.

Children in the parade were supplied with flags and balloons and feasted on quantities of watermelon and chocolate bars, free treats.

A fiesta air was added by the aroma and delicious taste of the wieners and hamburgers, toasted buns and coffee. Cabbage rolls were sold as short orders.

The golf clubs were won by Michael McGrath, the draw made at the dance in the evening.

One of the most amusing events was a blueberry pie eating contest, the twenty-four boys and girls who entered proving that pie can be eaten without the use of utensils or hands. The winners, cheered on by laughing spectators, were Norman Bottomley and Carolyn Fadden.
