

Miss Susan Kragero is home from Toronto visiting her parents and will return there to teach again this year.

George (Bucky) McCouan, RCAF, of Clear Lake, Man., is home visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manuel McCouan.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Johnson of Sarnia have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Johnson, the two men brothers.

Raymond Niemi and Earl McCouan are home from Windsor, Ont., visiting their parents and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Macchi of Port Arthur came down last week to reclaim daughters Rosemarie and Louise who had been with grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Figliomeni while their parents were vacationing in the States.

Miss Sheila McParland is visiting her grandparents in North Bay.

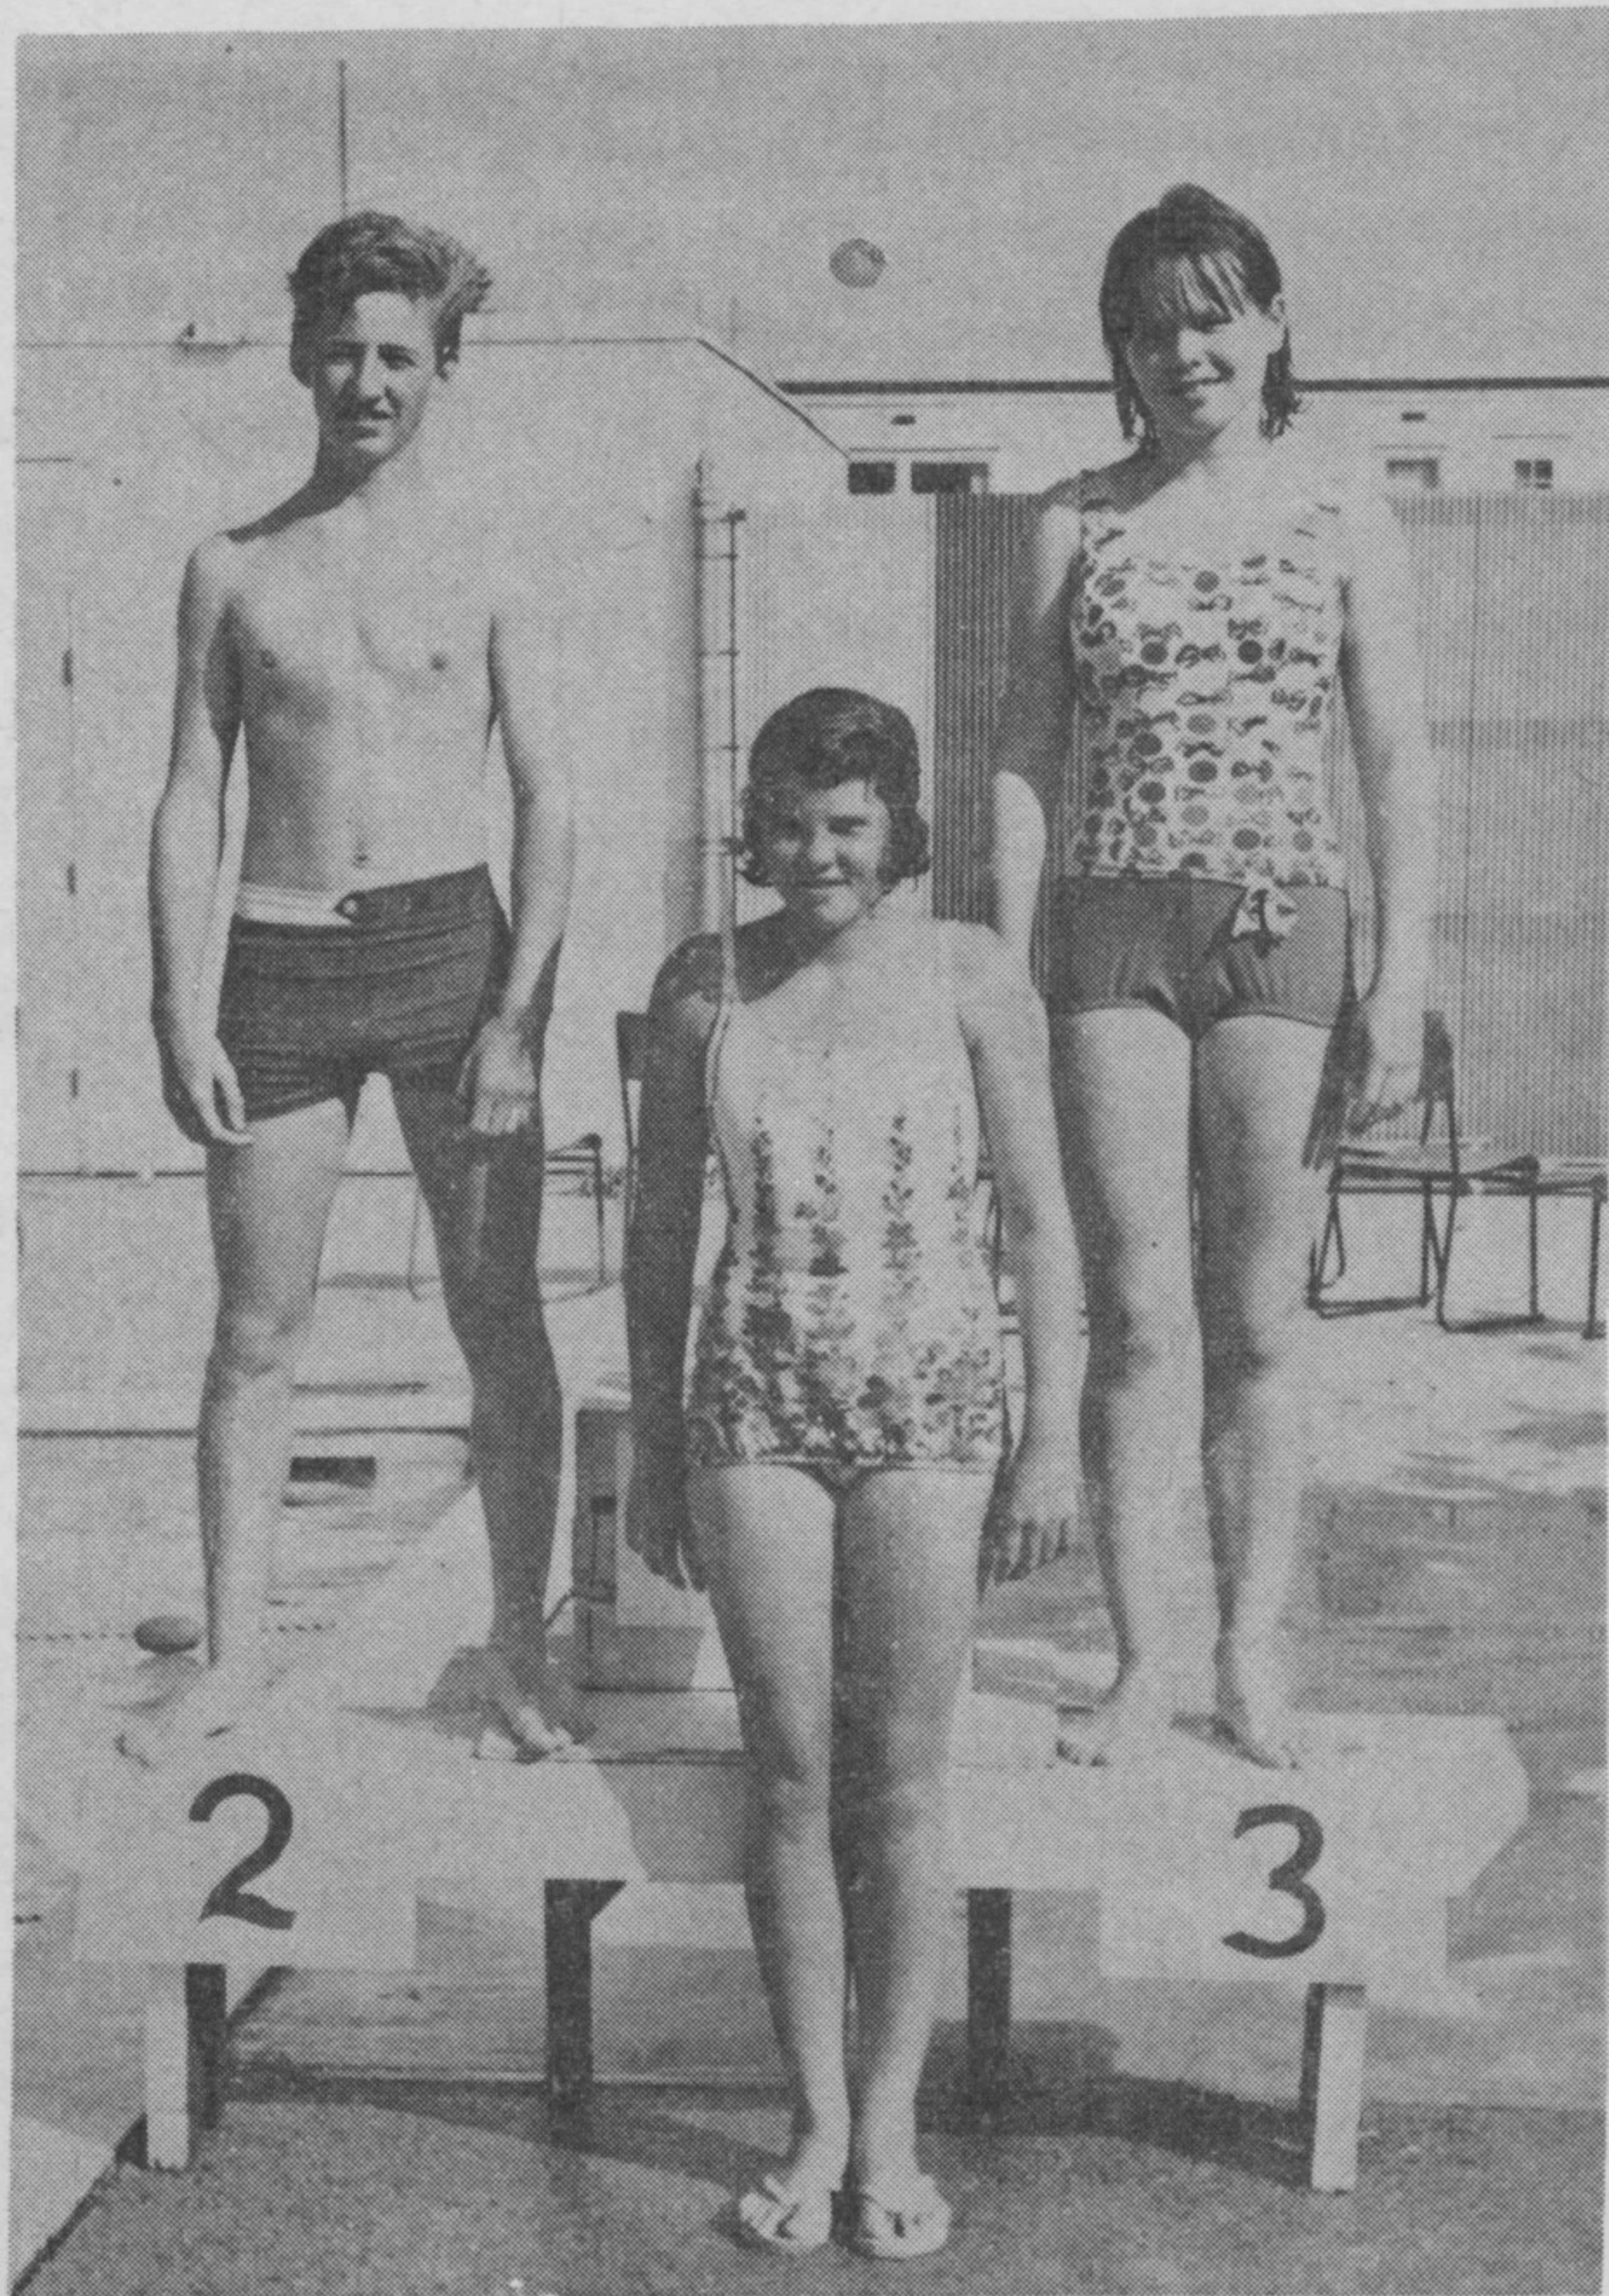

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Vincent of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Telford Wright and family of Acton are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rigelsford. Mr. and Mrs. Rigelsford leave shortly for a visit with their daughter and her family at Espanola, their son and family in Toronto and other relatives in the Port Hope area.

The name of Mrs. W.E. Duncan was inadvertently omitted from those attending the farewell party for Mrs. Jim Einarson.

---

Cracked chinaware can often be saved by boiling the pieces in milk for a half-hour or so.

---

Terrace Bay Swim Meet winners - Norma Chesley, Bob McMillan and Candice Neely.

(reprint)

Photo by G. Cotton

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Buso and family are spending their vacation in Sudbury and Sault Ste. Marie.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cook and family are holidaying in Bruce Mines with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McDonald (Hilda Saunders), of Sault St. Marie, are visiting old friends here.

Jim McCuaig of Torontu is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester McCuaig.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCuaig and Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCuaig spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. A.B. McCuaig.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gerow and daughter Mary Ellen left for their vacation, returning grandson Brad Wainikka home to Montreal. They will also visit in the Toronto area.

Mr. and Mrs. V.E. Everitt have Mr. and Mrs. Peer Portner with daughter Cathy and Karen, of Montreal, as their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thrower have the latter's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nuttall of Hurkett, visiting them.

Mr. and Mrs. George Duncan have Mr. and Mrs. Doug Murray (Helena Duncan) with Sandra, Heather, Linda and George, of Winnipeg, visiting them.

Mrs. George Cataford will enter Port Arthur General Hospital this week. Her Schreiber neighbor, Mrs. Pat LeBlanc was transferred from St. Joseph's Hospital to the General this week and will remain there for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gawley and family of Toronto spent last week with Glen Gawley.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peters of Winnipeg with sons Jim and Bobby, visited Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gellert. Mrs. Peters is Harold's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Cosgrove returned to Fort William after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cosgrove. Now while Mrs. Cosgrove is visiting her sister, Mrs. E.D. McMullen in Ceylon, Ont., Mrs. Lyng Cosgrove and daughter Allison of Port Arthur are staying with Grandma Cosgrove who makes her home with Austin's family.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gellert and family are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bourke in Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Morrow and family are spending their vacation in Minneapolis where Ted hopes to enjoy some ball games.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Bottomley had the latter's nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Deighton of Calgary with them last week, enroute to Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Spadoni and family will share a holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cocks and their family, taking along Judy St. Jean, in Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Martin and family of Nipigon visited Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Martin. Also with the Martins were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Martin, bringing home Justin and Curtiss who had holidayed with them at Loon Lake.

Mrs. Bob Jackson and family are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fadden. The two women are sisters and Mrs. Jackson is enroute from Atikokan to a new home in Dryden.

Miss Pat Potvin of Seven Islands, Quebec is the guest of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J.G. (Bun) Scott, visiting other relations in town also.