

FOR SALE - Continued from page 2
one power brake unit: one baby carriage: one twin Stroller: one writing table. Call at 117 Galena Street, Schreiber or phone 441.

HORTICULTURAL SHOW (Cont'd Pg. 1)

Turning to the large audience of children attending, the evening presentations, MC Mr. Farrow announced the winners of the garden judging, these having been judged monthly by a rotation of judges. President of Local 665, International Brotherhood Pulp, Sulphite and Paper Mill Workers George Ramsey awarded their Trophies and watches to senior division winner Werner Hermes and to Maurice Cadieux, Junior Division winner. In second place, Albert Cadieux, Senior Division and Leslie Ann Cotton, junior Division received the Loyal Order of Moose Award, presented by Don Laporte. The Credit Union award was presented by Verne Hopper to third place winners Karen Hiebert, Senior and Daniel Shubaly, Junior.

Sponsors of the Window Box displays and Bird House division, the Kiwanis prizes were presented by Russell Stevens to Kenny Turner, Jane Persson, John Ruzyski, Donna Chapman, twice; Brenda Chapman, Joan Persson and Jacques Landry.

Individual awards in the Junior Gardeners went to Albert Cadieux, Jr; Werner Hermes, Kenny Turner, Jane Persson, Maurice Cadieux, Ralph Fraser, Jacques Landry, John Ruzyski, Leslie Ann Cotton, Paul Belliveau, Ricky Gerlach, Brenda Chapman, Donna Chapman, Candice Cotton, Jacqueline Turner and Geraldine Belliveau.

Junior Division member Maurice Cadieux also won for himself the Horticultural Society's Shield as high aggregate winner in all divisions of Junior Gardeners.

Other aggregate winners were Henry Hermes for Vegetables to win the Circle Route Service award; John Steen for Bi-Annals to receive the Township of Terrace Bay Award; Albert Cadieux for Dahlias to win the Costa's Schreiber award and Perennials,

FOLKS ALL KNOW-THE PLACE TO GO, TO GET THE MOST FOR THEIR HARD EARNED DOUGH

ROBINSON STORES

Simcoe Plaza
Terrace Bay - Ontario
Ph. 3891

WEEKEND SPECIAL

CHILD'S REVERSIBLE
ALL WEATHER COATS

Sizes 3 - 6X
reg. $7.99

Special 5.99

receiving the Soughton Jewellers' Award; John Ferrier for Gladiolas to win the Anford's Ltd. Award. Mr. Ferrier won a further award of special merit, receiving the Neil Duncan Vase for the best single spike in the show with one of his miniature gladiolas.

Ribbons, prizes and cash awards were won by Eva Connors, Elva McMillan, Jessie Rathford, Marlene Doig of Schreiber, Mrs. R. Ramsey, Rudy Gerlach, Ken Turner, Anne Stachiw, Mrs. Ray Boyle, Gertrude Cotton, Walter Anderson, Stella Brown, Hilda Hiebert, Alma MacDonald, George Buhrman, in addition to the aggregate winners and Miss Susan Graham was the winner of the Spadoni vase in the door draws. Supporting the Horticultural Society with their Annual Show were Kimberly Clark Pulp and Paper Co. Ltd., Waghorn's Pharmacy, Schreiber Sport Shop, Filane's Service, Birch Motors, Hi-Way Service, Caccamo's Groceteria, Lakeshore Community TV, Tony's Hairstyling, Superior Coin Laundry Mary's Flower Shop, Robinson Stores, Norwood Motel, Terrace Bay Barber and Beauty Shop, Voyageur Restaurant, Hon. George Wardrope, MP., J. Houston Co., Dixon Reid agents, Garden Research Products, RX products, Plum Grove Nurseries in Hymers, Swifts Canadian Ltd., Lakehead Freightways, and Mr. Conrad Koke Port Arthur Nurseryman.

OUR FAMOUS BEARS

Neil Cornthwaite, president of the Terrace Bay Chamber of Commerce, this week received a clipping from the Evening Telegram of Superior, Wisconsin.

A recent guest at the Terrace Bay Motor Hotel writes a column in the Telegram and we quote from her remarks under date of August 16th, 1965 when she wrote on the Circle Drive trip. "Here's proof! While dining at a beautiful Canadian resort, our ears perked up when we heard one guest (Cont'd on Pg. 8)

ATTENTION CREDIT UNION MEMBERS

DURING SEPTEMBER WE WILL HAVE A CONTRACT OPENING FOR CUNA MUTUAL FAMILY PROTECTION INSURANCE. MEMBERS MAY JOIN AT THIS TIME WITHOUT EVIDENCE OF INSURABILITY. -- PROTECTION BECOMES EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1ST. IF YOU JOIN DURING OPEN PERIOD. INQUIRE AT CREDIT UNION OFFICE, SIM-

COE PLAZA

TERRACE BAY COMMUNITY CREDIT UNION LIMITED