

GOLF NEWSThe Aquasaban Golf Club's first club championship tournament held on Labour Day was a huge success.

Despite the cold forty-six participants were ready at tee-off time -- 8.00 A.M. Mrs. Stokaluk did a fine job keeping a good hot cup of coffee available throughout the day.

The results of the tournament were as follows: Low Gross, Club Champion and winner of the Kimberly Clark Trophy was Dave Whalen with an 83 score. Dave could have easily bettered this score had his lead been threatened. Dave's experience in tournament golf plus his fine steady play were too much for a few who could have threatened his leadership.

Tied for second place were Bob Adams and Vic Timpano each with 87 score. Bob Adams the only one to par the course during the year and a favourite to win had a rather rough day.

Vic Timpano tying for second and winner of a play-off did a fine job. Vic is undoubtedly the most dedicated golfer in the world and his playing keeps improving steadily.

Don Hershey with a twenty-four handicap won the first low net with a 70 score. Don's playing has improved considerably and we are happy that his dedication to the game has rewarded him with this fine win.

Tied for second place were Bill Hanley and Len Swirhun each with a 71. Bill's handicap is 18 and Len's 32.

Bill finished the first nine holes with a forty-one. The pressure with the club championship in view played havoc with the second nine. With a little more experience in tournament play Bill will be a keen competitor.

Len Swirhun, a much better player than his handicap indicates also did a fine job in his first tournament.

The prizes and the Kimberly Clark Trophy will be presented at the wind-up banquet.

The results of the Junior's tournament held on Aug. 31st were as follows:

Age 15-16 - 1st Butch Speziale 93 (18 holes) 2nd Michael Brend 95, 3rd Michael Evans-Smith 96.
Age 13 & 14 - Keith Koski 109 (18 holes), Don McMillan 117 and Marvin Koski 119.

Age 12-under (9 holes) Ricky Stokaluk 59, Sam Harris 68 and Curtis Desrosier 72.

Many fine prizes for the junior tournament were presented by merchants in Terrace Bay and Spadoni Bros. in Schreiber.

The final tournament of the year will be the Ladies Club Championship. For more information and date contact Emil Stokaluk.
