REBEKAHS HONOR ASSEMBLY PRESIDENT

Dinner in the Mayfair dining room preceded the special meeting held by Ruby Rebekah Lodge honoring the visit of Mrs. Audrey Whitehead, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Ontario. Mrs. Jessie McCanna, N.G., and Mrs. Mary Husband, V.G., presided for the meeting.

Mrs. Bern Whent escorted and formally presented Mrs. Whitehead and Mrs. Alice Sparkes escorted and presented Mrs. Dora Weaver, district deputy president.

The two guests entered the lodge room through a guard of honor holding gladiolus sprays to form an arch, the guard being Mesdames Winnie Clemens, Mildred Smith, Nettie Thrower, Anna Laine, Mary Legault and Mildred Welsh.

The Noble Grand presented gifts and corsages to the two guests and a welcome in song was given by Mrs. Gladys Madigan. Mrs. Whitehead, before her official address, thanked the members for their warm hospitality and displayed the Bible presented at her election to office in Toronto which she is carrying throughout her tour for officers signatures in the many Lodges of Ontario.

Following the meeting supper was served in the lower hall and a social evening, convened by Mrs. Gladys Madigan, was held to mark Ruby Rebekah's 40th anniversary.

The many-tiered special cake was cut by Mrs. Whitehead and Mrs. Agnes Sully, (the latter a charter member of the Lodge) and served by Mrs. Jessie McCanna, Schreiber Noble Grand.

Ruby Rebekah Lodge held its regular meeting last Wednesday evening with Mrs. Jessie McCanna and Mrs. Mary Husband in the chairs.
